ZIM is the best performing carrier in the Asia-Mediterranean trade in Q2

8/3/2017

According to the last SeaIntel on-time reliability report, ZIM is the best performing carrier in the Asia-Mediterranean trade in the 2nd quarter of 2017, with a score of 97.2%. ZIM was also the most reliable carrier on the Europe – Asia Eastbound leg in June with an on-time performance of 84.8%.

ZIM's new network, introduced in April 2017, includes the ZMP service, offering fast and efficient link between Asia and the East Med/Black sea ports with excellent connection to regional lines, and the India Med Express service (IMX).

Rani Ben Yehuda, ZIM VP Cross Suez and Atlantic Trades, said: "Our new strategy as an independent carrier focused on customer service is proved beneficial for customers. We will continue to invest efforts in better schedule reliability and improved service levels."
