Clínicas Auna reopens its new Guardia Civil branch clinic

- It offers an important variety of medical specialties, with a wide infrastructure and complying with the highest quality standards and biosafety protocols.

Clínicas Auna announces the reopening of its Guardia Civil branch, located in the district of San Isidro in Lima. This branch has the highest quality standards and biosafety protocols, renowned medical staff and healthcare personnel, committed to the experience of the patient. Likewise, it holds the INTEDYA certification of safe clinics against COVID-19. The Guardia Civil branch of Clínicas Auna will have a wide infrastructure consisting of 42 rooms, 10 ICU beds, 3 operating rooms, 7 preparation and recovery positions, a modern clinical laboratory, an emergency area with 5 independent boxes, a blood bank, a pharmacy, an imaging area for tomography, magnetic resonance, ultrasound and X-rays. "In this branch we will have the medical staff of the four (04) branches of Clínicas Auna, including doctors from Clínica Delgado Auna and Clínicas Oncosalud in Lima, and we hope to continue expanding our network that integrates the best human team and an infrastructure at the service of each of our patients and their families, thus evidencing our commitment to transform health care", said Jaime Planas, Chief Executive Officer of Clínicas Auna.

Medical specialties

Likewise, Dr. Bibiana Perez, Medical Director of the Guardia Civil branch, added: "We have several medical specialties, such as general surgery, oncological surgery, traumatology, non-obstetric gynecology, head and neck surgery, vascular surgery, otorhinolaryngology, urology, physical medicine, internal medicine and radiology. In addition, more than nine types of surgeries will be offered". The Guardia Civil branch of Clínicas Auna is located at Av. Guardia Civil 368, San Isidro, and the opening hours are from Monday to Friday from 8:00 A.M. to 7:00 P.M., and Saturdays from 8:00 A.M. to 2:00 P.M. It is important to state that to make an appointment, it can be scheduled by calling to the telephone number (01) 204-9600. Clínicas Auna, through its seven (07) branches nationwide, is committed to keep providing access to quality health services to more Peruvians.