State Street Bank Appoints Barbara Roth as Chief Administrative Officer for Continental Europe

MUNICH, October 18, 2024 - State Street Corporation (NYSE: STT) today announced the appointment of Barbara Roth as Chief Administrative Officer (CAO) for Continental Europe of State Street Bank International GmbH (SSBI). She will also join the SSBI Executive Management Board.

Reporting to Yvette Hollingsworth Clark, Chief Compliance Officer at State Street and Andreas Przewloka, CEO of State Street Bank International, Roth will oversee the effective setup and execution of SSBI's regulatory and governance frameworks, ensuring alignment with the global corporate strategy and regulatory requirements. Her responsibilities will include overseeing key governance functions such as Compliance, Anti-Money Laundering, Data Protection, and the SSBI Outsourcing Office.

Roth brings more than 20 years of experience in the financial services industry, having held several senior executive roles at leading financial institutions. Prior to joining State Street, she served as Head of Internal Audit at Deutsche Börse Group. She also held senior leadership roles at UniCredit Bank AG, including Chief Compliance Officer. Roth holds a Ph.D. in Law.

Information Classification: General

Yvette Hollingsworth Clark, Chief Compliance Officer at State Street, commented: "Barbara's deep expertise of regulatory environments and her proven ability to execute complex risk management governance frameworks is essential to our continued success. I look forward to partnering with Barbara as we continue to enhance our compliance and governance capabilities across SSBI and the broader organization."

Andreas Przewloka, CEO of State Street Bank International, added: "Barbara's extensive experience in the financial services industry and her strong leadership skills make her an ideal fit for this critical role. Her expertise will be counted on as we further strengthen our regulatory and governance frameworks and continue to grow our business in Continental Europe."

Barbara Roth stated: "I am excited to join State Street and look forward to contributing to the company's success. The financial services industry is navigating an evolving regulatory landscape. Ensuring that we stay ahead of these developments will be crucial to our ability to support our clients and uphold our commitment to integrity and operational excellence. Together with the team, I am confident we will continue to deliver sustainable results for our clients and stakeholders."
