ZIM Launches ZX3 – A New Premium Express Service Connecting Shanghai and Xiamen to Los Angeles

2026-10-30

ZX3 Joins ZIM's Premium Expedited Network,
Now Offering Seven Weekly Departures from China and Vietnam to the US West Coast

HAIFA, Israel, October 30, 2026 - ZIM Integrated Shipping Services (NYSE: ZIM) announced today the launch of ZX3, a new premium expedited service connecting Shanghai and Xiamen directly with Los Angeles, further expanding ZIM's expedited offering across the Transpacific trade.

Operated exclusively by ZIM, the new service is scheduled to commence in December 2026 with the following rotation:

Xiamen - Shanghai - Los Angeles - Xiamen

ZX3 will provide a direct 12-day transit from Shanghai to Los Angeles and a best-in-market 15-day transit from Xiamen to Los Angeles. The service brings an enhanced product to the Shanghai market and a dedicated premium expedited offering to the Xiamen market, while building on ZIM's commitment to consistent weekly schedule reliability and solutions tailored to enhance supply chain resilience.

Joining ZIM's established premium expedited service network (ZEX and ZX2), ZX3 will contribute to a combined frequency of seven weekly departures from China and Vietnam, giving customers greater flexibility, expanded market coverage, and reliable access to the US West Coast.

Key advantages include:

- Direct calls with berth on arrival in Shanghai and Xiamen, expanding ZIM's premium network coverage across key markets in China.

- Dedicated berth upon arrival at the WBCT terminal in Los Angeles, with dedicated ZIM yard and pick up lanes, supporting efficient and expedited cargo handling at destination.
- Monday Los Angeles arrival with Expedited cargo availability, with cargo discharged onto ZIM-dedicated chassis with immediate availability – no appointment or queue required.
- Expedited rail connections to major US inland destinations, including New York, Chicago, Memphis, Dallas, Kansas City, and more.

Hani Kalinski, EVP Pacific Business Unit said: “The launch of ZX3 marks an important step in our continued commitment to delivering premium, customer-focused solutions that respond to evolving supply chain needs. By adding Xiamen and an additional direct call in Shanghai to our expedited network, we are providing customers with broader market coverage and greater flexibility. Building on the success of our industry-leading expedited network, ZX3 further strengthens our differentiated service portfolio and our ability to deliver high-quality, end-to-end customer experience that supports our customers’ growth and supply chain performance”
