

Vontier Named One of America's Climate Leaders for 2026 by USA TODAY

2026-04-27

RALEIGH, N.C.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Vontier Corporation (NYSE: VNT), a leading global provider of critical technologies and solutions to connect, manage and scale the mobility ecosystem, has been named one of 'America's Climate Leaders' by USA TODAY and Statista Inc. for the second consecutive year. The annual list highlights U.S. companies making significant strides in reducing greenhouse gas emissions.

"We're honored to be included as one of America's Climate Leaders for the second year in a row. This recognition from USA TODAY and Statista reflects the meaningful progress we've made to reduce our environmental impact through disciplined, data-driven action and operational transformation," said Katie Rowen, Chief Transformation and Operations Officer for Vontier.

"This achievement also reinforces our commitment to transparency as we prepare for the release of our annual sustainability report, which will outline our actions and progress over the past year in achieving sustainability and governance goals," said Rowen.

For this ranking, USA Today and Statista partnered to examine companies headquartered in the U.S. that achieved the greatest reduction in their emissions intensity from 2022 to 2024.

Vontier also achieved the highest year-over-year emissions reduction among the select group of North Carolina-headquartered companies included on the list.

This recognition adds to the growing list of accolades, including those from CDP, EcoVadis and Newsweek. Vontier is committed to creating a brighter future for its customers, employees and communities. For more information on
