Vontier Named a 2027 Military Friendly® Employer, Earning a Silver Designation for the Fourth Consecutive Year

2026-11-11

RALEIGH, N.C.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Vontier Corporation (NYSE: VNT), a leading global provider of critical technologies and solutions that connect, manage and scale the mobility ecosystem, today announced it has been named a 2027 Military Friendly® Employer, earning a Silver designation in the $1 billion to $5 billion revenue category for the fourth consecutive year.

"The military community brings an exceptional combination of professionalism, leadership and mission focus to the workforce," said Mark Morelli, President and CEO of Vontier. "As a veteran myself and a member of a military family, I deeply appreciate the experiences and perspectives these individuals bring to our workplace. Earning this recognition for the fourth consecutive year reflects Vontier's commitment to creating an environment where veterans and military families can thrive."

The Military Friendly® Employer designation is awarded to organizations that demonstrate excellence in recruiting, hiring, retaining and advancing veterans and members of the military community. Employers are evaluated across key categories including military recruitment, employee retention, advancement opportunities, culture and support programs.

At Vontier, veterans and military family members contribute across the company's portfolio of mobility technology businesses, applying their diverse experiences and problem-solving skills to help customers improve productivity, enhance safety and drive operational performance. The company supports employees through professional development opportunities, inclusive workplace programs and a culture that values service, leadership and continuous learning.

Military Friendly® ratings are based on public data sources and proprietary survey information from participating organizations. More than 1,800 companies participated in the 2027 Military Friendly® survey, with awards recognizing organizations that set the standard for veteran and military family support.
