

Vontier Recognized with Seven British Safety Council International Safety Awards for 2026

2026-04-06

Global manufacturing sites from Altoona to Australia received high marks

RALEIGH, N.C.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Vontier Corporation (NYSE: VNT), a leading global provider of critical technologies and solutions to connect, manage and scale the mobility ecosystem, has received seven British Safety Council International Safety Awards for 2026.

These awards demonstrate Vontier's continued commitment to health, safety and wellbeing, while prioritizing a culture of actively caring for people across global operations. Vontier achieved the following results:

Distinction Award

- Altoona Factory

Merit Award

- Middle East Africa
- Australia (Sydney Warehouse)
- India (Coimbatore site)
- India (Field Service)

Pass Award

- Brazil (Sao Paulo site)

- Greensboro Factory

“The most visible and meaningful way that we demonstrate the importance of our employees at Vontier is to ensure we have a world-class safety program and culture,” says Katie Rowen, Chief Transformation and Operations Officer at Vontier. “Having facilities recognized on five different continents is a real credit to our global teams and demonstrates our shared commitment to put our people first.”

The International Safety Awards recognize organizations that demonstrate strong safety leadership, robust systems, and a positive, people focused safety culture. This will be Vontier’s third year in receiving recognition from the British Safety Council and the highest number of awards received to date.

“I’m very pleased to share our results,” said Michael Moore, VP of Global, Environment, Health, Safety & Security. “Our Actively Caring for People program (AC4P™), a trademark of Actively Caring for People, is the way we reinforce a caring safety culture, encouraging teammates to speak up, look out for one another, and address risk. AC4P™ continues to deliver results, with OSHA recordable injuries down 78% since 2021.”

The seven International Safety Awards reflect a common thread: Strong safety leadership and a people-first culture powered by everyone at Vontier.

This adds to Vontier’s growing list of recent sustainability accolades, including our most recent EcoVadis Gold rating, Newsweek’s Most Responsible and Greenest Companies, as well as recognition from CDP for climate change and water security.
