

Britannia Global Markets selects Broadridge for International Post-Trade Securities Operations

10/13/2020

Mutualised solution increases efficiency, improves business controls and mitigates risk

NEW YORK and LONDON, Oct. 13, 2020 /PRNewswire/ -- Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. (NYSE:BR), a global Fintech leader, today announced that Britannia Global Markets, a bespoke, all-encompassing brokerage house and subsidiary of Britannia Financial Group, has selected Broadridge to streamline its post-trade processing for its international securities business including cash equities, fixed income and repurchase agreements.

Broadridge's solution will provide Britannia Global Markets with a strategic, multi-market platform with the inherent scale and agility to support future growth and respond to regulatory requirements. It will be deployed as an advanced, SaaS-based solution that enables the firm to benefit from a mutualised, resilient service that mitigates risk and underpins a superior client service.

"With Broadridge as our partner, we will have a firm foundation for growth as we expand our securities business and deliver continued value to our clients," said Ian Johnson, Chief Executive Officer of Britannia Global Markets. "Broadridge's solution, backed by its high service standards and capital markets expertise, will help advance our operational efficiency and enable superior process controls."

"It is a privilege to have been selected by Britannia Global Markets as they continue to advance their services for international securities," said Danny Green, General Manager for Post-Trade Solutions, Broadridge International. "We are fully committed to helping them to drive growth, optimise their operations and navigate the challenges of risk and compliance."
