Amit Zavery to Step Down After 7 Years of Service

NEW YORK, Oct. 1, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- Broadridge (NYSE: BR), a global Fintech leader, today announced that it had nominated Srinivas D. Tallapragada for election at its upcoming 2026 Annual Meeting.

Broadridge also announced that Amit Zavery will be stepping down from the Broadridge Board of Directors after the same meeting following more than seven years of service as a Broadridge Director.

"We are excited to be adding Srinivas to the Board," Eileen Murray, Chairperson of Broadridge's Board said. "He will bring his deep enterprise technology expertise and customer-focused perspective to our Board, providing valuable insights into how technology investment translates into innovation, resilience, and sustainable growth at scale."

"On behalf of the entire Board and management team, I want to thank Amit for his many years of service to Broadridge," said Tim Gokey, Chief Executive Officer and Director of Broadridge. "His experience and perspective have been invaluable to the Board."

Mr. Tallapragada currently serves as Special Advisor to the CEO of Salesforce, Inc. He joined Salesforce in 2012 and held several leadership positions, including President, Chief Engineering and Customer Success Officer from February 2025 to August 2026 and President and Chief Engineering Officer from December 2019 to February 2025. During his 14-year tenure with Salesforce, he led the global teams responsible for engineering, cloud infrastructure, cybersecurity, and professional services, and helped shape the company's technology, product innovation, AI, and customer success strategies. Prior to joining Salesforce, Mr. Tallapragada held senior engineering and product leadership roles at SAP Labs Inc. and Oracle Corporation. He serves on the board of directors of GoDaddy Inc.
