

Broadridge Among the Top 50 Risk Technology Providers Globally in Annual Chartis RiskTech100® Rankings

Released : 01 28 2015

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Jan. 28, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Broadridge Financial Solutions, Inc. (NYSE: BR) is ranked among the top 50 risk technology vendors in its debut on the Chartis RiskTech100®, an annual global risk technology study. Broadridge provides risk technology solutions for hedge funds, banks, securities firms, and asset managers globally. The Chartis study assesses functionality, core technology, organizational strength, customer satisfaction, market presence and innovation.

"Well-integrated risk management operations are critical to institutions in today's financial services industry," said Bennett Egeth, President, Broadridge Investment Management Solutions. "Our strong first-time ranking on the RiskTech100 is a recognition of our history of technical innovation, our expertise in risk technology integration and our ability to help clients stay focused on their core business while effectively managing risk."

Broadridge's solutions cover a range of risk management areas across asset classes and geographies, including portfolio, market, credit and counterparty risk. In its debut appearance, the company ranked 48th among Chartis' RiskTech100, a comprehensive and globally-recognized study of the top 100 risk technology vendors in its ninth year of publication.

"Broadridge is developing strong capabilities in risk management," said Peyman Mestchian, managing partner at Chartis. "Firms looking to combine their risk and compliance capabilities across multiple risk classes and business processes can turn to Broadridge to simplify complex demands on their infrastructure. The company's approach to delivering operational excellence is a competitive advantage in the capital markets technology sector."

For this year's RiskTech100 report, Chartis collected more than 1,200 questionnaires from risk technology buyers and end-users, as well as more than 300 from risk technology vendors. Additionally, the firm's analysts conducted more than 100 briefings with select vendors to help determine and order the final list.
