Chief Executive Officer Richard J. Daly also will work actively with the Broadridge finance team during the leave to ensure all responsibilities are being met. "We support Dan's decision to take medical leave. Dan has been part of the Broadridge family for decades, and a valued business partner who has built a very strong finance organization. We look forward to his full recovery," said Mr. Daly. "As always, we will remain focused on delivering superior investor communications and technology-driven solutions to our clients."

Mr. Liberatore currently serves as chief operating officer of Broadridge's Mutual Fund and Retirement Solutions Group, prior to which he was chief financial officer of the Investor Communication Solutions business. Mr. Lisa currently serves as Broadridge's corporate controller.
