The Committee shall be comprised of two or more members of the Board of Directors. Each member shall be determined by the Board of Directors to be an "independent director" in accordance with the applicable listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE"), including standards specifically applicable to compensation committee members, as well as the Company's Corporate Governance Guidelines, subject to any exceptions or cure periods that are applicable to the foregoing requirements. Any action duly taken by the Committee shall be valid and effective, whether or not the members of the Committee at the time of such action are later determined not to have satisfied the requirements for membership provided herein.

Additionally, it is expected that the members of the Committee will be “Non-employee Directors” for purposes of Rule 16b-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”).

B. Appointment and Removal

The members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company, the Bylaws of the Company and the Investor Rights Agreement (each as may be amended from time-to-time, the “Governance Documents”). Except as otherwise directed by the Board, a director selected as a Committee member shall continue to be a member for as long as he or she remains a director or until her or his earlier resignation or removal from the Committee. Subject to the Governance Documents, any member may be removed from the Committee by the Board, with or without cause, at any time. Subject to the Governance Documents, no member of the Committee shall be removed except by majority vote of the Board and any vacancy on the Committee shall be filled by a majority vote of the Board. Subject to the Governance Documents, the Board may designate one or more directors meeting the qualifications of Section II.A as alternate members of the Committee, who may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the Committee. In the absence or disqualification of a member of the Committee, the member or members present at any meeting and not disqualified from voting, whether or not such member or members constitute a quorum, may unanimously appoint another member of the Board to act at the meeting in the place of any such absent or disqualified member, subject in every case to the Investor Rights Agreement.

C. Chairperson

The Chairperson of the Committee shall be appointed from among the Committee members. Unless a Chairperson is elected by the full Board of Directors, the members of the Committee shall designate a Chairperson by the majority vote of the full Committee membership. In the absence of the Chairperson of the Committee, the Committee shall select another member to preside.

The Chairperson of the Committee shall have authority to convene meetings of the Committee, set agendas for such meetings, determine the Committee’s information needs, and such authority appurtenant or ancillary thereto, except as otherwise provided by the Board of Directors or the Committee.

D. Delegation to Subcommittees

The Committee, by resolution approved by a majority of the Committee, may form subcommittees composed of one or more of its members, provided that unless the membership, purpose and powers of such subcommittee are approved by all members of the Committee or a majority of the members of the Board of Directors then in office, the membership of such subcommittee shall be subject to the requirements of the Investor Rights Agreement to the same extent as a committee of the Board of Directors; provided further, that when appropriate, any such subcommittee shall be composed solely of two or more members that have been determined to be a “Non-employee Director” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act. The Committee may delegate any of its responsibilities to any such subcommittee so long as such delegation is not otherwise inconsistent with law and applicable rules and regulation of the SEC and NYSE.

The Committee may delegate to one or more officers of the Company the authority to make grants and awards of cash or options or other equity securities to any non-Section 16 officer of the Company under the Company's incentive-compensation or other equity-based plans as the Committee deems appropriate and in accordance with the terms of such plan; provided that such delegation is in compliance with the plan and the laws of the State of Delaware. In the event of such delegation, at each meeting of the Committee, the delegated officer(s) shall report to the Committee the awards made since the prior meeting and, at least annually, the Committee shall review such awards made by such delegated officer(s).

III. MEETINGS

The Committee shall meet as often as necessary, which shall be at least quarterly. Subject to the authority of the Chairperson of the Committee, the Chairperson of the Board of Directors or any member of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee. Notice of meetings shall be given to all Committee members or may be waived, in the same manner as required for meetings of the Board of Directors. Meetings of the Committee may be held by means of conference call or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear and speak with each other. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business and the act of a majority of those present at any meeting at which there is a quorum shall be the act of the Committee.

The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent of its members.

As part of its review and establishment of the performance criteria and compensation of designated key executives, the Committee should meet separately at least on an annual basis with the Company's Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO"), the Company's principal human resources executive, and any other corporate officers, as it deems appropriate. However, the Committee should meet regularly without such officers present. The CEO may not be present during voting or deliberations with respect to determination of her or his compensation.

Subject to executive sessions, all members of the Board of Directors that are not members of the Committee may attend meetings of the Committee but may not vote. Additionally, the Committee may invite to its meetings any director, management of the Company, outside consultants and such other persons as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Committee may also exclude from its meetings any persons, other than a member of the Committee, it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities.

Subject to this Section III, the Committee shall otherwise establish its own rules of procedure.

IV. AUTHORITY

The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of any such compensation consultant, legal counsel or other adviser retained by the Committee. The Company shall provide appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any such compensation consultant, legal counsel

Any compensation consultant retained by the Committee to assist it in connection with setting the amount or form of executive or director compensation (other than any role limited to consulting on any broad-based plan that does not discriminate in scope, terms, or operation, in favor of executive officers or directors of the Company, and that is available generally to all salaried employees; or providing information that either is not customized for the Company or that is customized based on parameters that are not developed by the compensation consultant, and about which the compensation consultant does not provide advice) shall not, nor shall any of its affiliates, provide any other services to the Company or its subsidiaries, unless such services are pre-approved by the Committee. Finally, the Committee shall evaluate, on at least an annual basis, whether any work provided by the Committee's compensation consultant raised any conflict of interest.

The Committee shall have access to all books, records, facilities and personnel of the Company, and, subject to the direction of the Board, the Committee is authorized and delegated the authority to act on behalf of the Board with respect to any matter necessary or appropriate to the accomplishment of its purposes.
