Utz Brands Releases 2023 Environmental, Social, and Governance Report

2024-09-03

HANOVER, Pa.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Utz Brands, Inc. (NYSE: UTZ) ("Utz" or the "Company"), a leading U.S. manufacturer of branded Salty Snacks and a small-cap value and growth Staples equity, today announced the release of its 2023 Environmental, Social, and Governance ("ESG") Report.

The report, which covers the fiscal year that ended December 31, 2023, highlights the ESG strides the Company has made over the past year, building on the momentum highlighted in the Company's 2022 report.

Key Highlights from the 2023 ESG Report:

Environment: The report highlights the progress Utz has made in reducing its carbon emissions through network optimization and more efficient distribution strategies, in minimizing food waste contributions to landfills, and through developing a comprehensive environmental policy.

Social: Utz places people at the core of its business and strives to foster an inclusive work environment that prioritizes the well-being and development of its associates. Utz's workforce diversity initiatives are designed to foster equal opportunities and representation across all levels of the organization.

Governance: Utz upholds a strong corporate governance framework that promotes ethical decision-making, accountability, and transparency. By working to continuously improve its governance practices, Utz aims to maintain the trust and confidence of its stakeholders.
