Non-GAAP Financial Measures

To supplement the financial information presented in accordance with GAAP, we use certain non-GAAP financial measures. Management believes the non-GAAP measures enhance investors' understanding of the Company's business and performance. These measures are also useful in understanding performance trends and facilitate comparisons with the performance of other financial institutions. Risks associated with non-GAAP measures are the risk that persons might disagree as to the appropriateness of items comprising these measures and that different companies might calculate these measures differently. In the information below, we provide reconciliations of the non-GAAP financial measures used in this presentation to the most direct comparable GAAP measures.

Core Deposits

Core Deposits is a non-GAAP measure that we use to measure the portion of our total deposits that is thought to be more stable, lower cost and reprice less frequently on average in a rising rate environment. We calculate core deposits as total deposits less time deposits greater than $250,000 and brokered deposits. We track core deposits because we believe it is a useful measure to help assess the Company's deposit base and, among other things, potential volatility therein.

TCE, ROATCE, TCE Per Share and TCE to Total Assets

TCE, ROATCE, TCE per share and TCE to total assets are non-GAAP measures that we use to measure the Company's performance. We calculated TCE as total shareholders' equity excluding preferred stock. Management believes the non-GAAP measures provide useful supplemental information and a clearer understanding of the Company's performance.

PTPP Income, and Adjusted ROAA, ROAE and Diluted EPS for PTPP

PTPP income, and adjusted ROAA, ROAE and Diluted EPS are non-GAAP measures that we use to measure the Company's performance and believe these presentations provide useful supplemental information and a clearer understanding of the Company's performance. We calculated PTPP income as net income excluding income tax provision and provision for loan losses.
