

Hyatt Summerfield Suites(R) San Diego/Carlsbad Celebrates Grand Opening

1/25/2011

Upscale all-suite hotel offers perfect solution for business and leisure travelers
CARLSBAD, Calif., Jan 25, 2011 (BUSINESS WIRE) --

Hyatt Hotels & Resorts and Inns of America today announce the opening of Hyatt Summerfield Suites San Diego/Carlsbad, marking the 35th Hyatt Summerfield Suites nationwide.

Hyatt Summerfield Suites San Diego/Carlsbad makes travelers feel right at home with its guest suites and public spaces, which are designed to facilitate interaction between guests and staff. The lobby functions as a neighborhood; guests can enter the hotel and be greeted by a central core of business essentials for daily living, such as a Guest Market, which is open 24/7, a Business Center and more. The path through the public space leads to an outdoor area which features a heated pool, grilling area and gathering spaces for guests to relax and socialize. These hotel components allow guests to enjoy a comfortable and productive stay, whether it is for a short trip or an extended stay.

"Carlsbad is an area that has the best of both worlds; as home to many well-known corporate offices, along with its prime coastal location right on the beach, it attracts a diverse traveler mix that we are eager and ready to welcome to the hotel," said Dennis Hennis, general manager, Hyatt Summerfield Suites San Diego/Carlsbad. "Whether people are visiting for a short trip or an extended stay, we know that Hyatt Summerfield Suites San Diego/Carlsbad is the perfect solution for our guests because we provide a personalized hotel experience that allows them to feel right at home."

Hyatt Summerfield Suites San Diego/Carlsbad captures all of the natural beauty that the coastal resort city of Carlsbad has to offer. The hotel is just two blocks from the beach and is close to top dining, entertainment, shopping, several world class golf courses, and the famous Del Mar Racetrack. Hyatt Summerfield Suites San Diego/Carlsbad is just a short drive to many of San Diego's top tourist spots, such as the San Diego Zoo and SeaWorld. The hotel is also a great option for guests visiting students at University of California San Diego, California State University San Marcos, and University of Phoenix-San Diego Campus. For guests in town on business, the hotel is centrally located to the corporate offices of California Transplant Services, Taylor-made Golf, 24 Hour Fitness, Life Technologies, Callaway Golf, Chuao Chocolatier, and many more.

"We are so thrilled to be working with Hyatt and to be bringing the Hyatt Summerfield Suites name to this region of California, which is a wonderful addition to the community," said Bill Herrick, owner, Inns of America. "We did a complete top-to-bottom renovation to make sure that we capture everything the Hyatt Summerfield Suites brand represents, including its casual hospitality, modern atmosphere and practical amenities that allow travelers to feel the comforts of home, the convenience of a neighborhood and the feel of a real community."
