Forward-Looking Statements

The information presented herein may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the federal securities laws. Such forward-looking statements include without limitation all statements other than statements of historical fact, including those made with respect to new or existing products and services including LifeChain, technology, data analytics, artificial intelligence, blockchain transactions, the potential value of our brands, the monetization of intellectual property and systems, and the timing or impact of any of the foregoing. You should not place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date they were made. We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statements as a result of any new information, future developments, or otherwise. Forward-looking statements are inherently difficult to predict. Accordingly, actual results could differ materially from those contained in or contemplated by our projections, estimates, and other forward-looking statements due to a variety of risks, uncertainties, and other important factors, including without limitation difficulties we may have with our fulfillment partners, supply chain, access to products, shipping costs, insurance, competition, consumer needs and spending, marketing, macroeconomic factors, tariffs or product bans, our evolving business model and strategy, our use of our brands, changes to our leadership team or compensation approach, attraction/retention of employees, search engine optimization results, our ability to become profitable or generate positive cash flows, any problems with our infrastructure, transaction processing systems, cyber-attacks or data breaches affecting us, tax, compliance, regulatory or legal developments, restrictions on tracking technologies, losses relating to equity method investments, any ability to optimize our operations including customer service; any failure to effectively utilize technological advancements or protect our intellectual property, global conflict and geopolitics, problems resulting from our determination to partially self-insure, our evolving business practices and expanded product and service offerings, impacts from allowing third-parties to license our trademarks, any inability to realize the benefits of our investments in new businesses, strategies, partnerships, ventures, acquisitions, or other transactions, and whether our partnership with Pelion Venture Partners will achieve its objectives. More information about such risks, uncertainties, and other important factors are included in our Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2024, filed with the SEC on February 25, 2025, and in our subsequent filings with the SEC.

This presentation also may contain estimates and other data made by independent parties and by us relating to market size and other data about our industry. This data involves a number of assumptions and limitations, and you are cautioned not to give undue weight to such estimates. In addition, projections, assumptions and estimates of our future performance and the future performance of the markets in which we operate are necessarily subject to a high degree of uncertainty and risk.
