"Pets are family members," said Overstock President Stormy Simon. "We have a lot of fun, unique and sometimes quirky gifts that are perfect for you and your pet."

In the pet store, Overstock offers pet beds, toys, apparel, treats, health supplies and grooming products, everything for pets this holiday season.

For those looking to give the gift of animal companionship this year, Overstock offers a petadoption.ostk.com on its website. Through this free service, customers access real time updates of opportunities to adopt adorable animals in thousands of shelters nationwide. Customers are able to search for particular types and breeds of animal, filter by attributes such as gender, age, color, disposition and more, in much the same way customers filter through millions of Overstock products such as furniture, apparel, jewelry or pet supply products. In 8 months, over 20,000 pet connections have been made through Overstock.

According to Simon, you can uncover great gifts for more than just your four-legged friends on Overstock. Overstock's Gift Finder can help you discover the perfect present for your favorite pet or your favorite person. We've got products for techies, athletes, foodies, trendsetters and everyone in between, and all products can be grouped by price points. So no matter what your budget, or who the gift is for, Overstock will help make your holiday shopping a success.
