Over $2 Million in Donations to Wounded Warrior Project®

SALT LAKE CITY, May 27, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) — [Overstock.com, Inc.](http://Overstock.com, Inc) (Nasdaq:OSTK) and its customers have donated over $2 million to Wounded Warrior Project® (WWP) since 2009, through the Overstock.com online shopping website as well as direct donations by the company.

The WWP purpose is to raise awareness in order to enlist the public's aid for the needs of injured service members, their caregivers and families, and to provide unique, direct programs and services to meet their needs. Veterans and friends created WWP in 2003 to help other veterans battling both the visible and invisible wounds of war. Since then, WWP has served over 50,000 veterans by nurturing their minds, bodies and encouraging economic empowerment and engagement. "It took nearly four years to hit the $1 million mark, but only 1 1/2 years to reach the $2 million mark," states Overstock.com CEO Patrick M. Byrne. "We are proud of our customers and their commitment to this worthwhile cause."

To celebrate the relationship, Byrne and Overstock.com President Tommy Simon will ring the Nasdaq opening bell tomorrow, May 28th, accompanied by members of WWP.

Overstock.com invites all customers to support WWP as they complete their purchases by donating amounts in any denomination from $1 to $1,000 at checkout, or by visiting www.overstock.com/woundedwarriorproject.

Military members, past and present, receive free membership to Club O, Overstock.com's loyalty program. Members receive free shipping on all orders and Club O Rewards of 5 to 25 percent. These rewards accumulate and may be used on future purchases. Memberships can be purchased for $19.95 per year, but those who qualify for free membership to the program can enroll by visiting the sign-up section on Overstock.com.
