

Overstock.com Gives Teachers More Than Apples

SALT LAKE CITY, July 28, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) – To celebrate the positive impact teachers have had on generations of young minds, Overstock.com, Inc. (NASDAQ:OSTK) has expanded its offer of free Club O loyalty program memberships to include teachers of all grade levels. With every purchase on Overstock.com, Club O members receive free shipping and a minimum of 5 percent back in Club O Rewards Dollars to spend on the online shopping website. Teachers can go to www.overstock.com/teachers or click on the "Teachers & Students" icon at the bottom of the Club O Rewards Program page to sign up for the program. Interested educators must first verify their identity using a .edu email address or other applicable criteria through Overstock.com partner ID.me to receive their free Club O membership. "This is just one small way for us to say 'thank you' to teachers for their hard work in the classroom," said Overstock.com President Stormy Simon. "Hopefully the ability to use Club O reward dollars on purchases from our Teacher's Headquarters will help stretch classroom budgets."

Overstock.com's new Teacher Headquarters is a curated page full of products an educator might need for a successful school year. The store contains an eclectic collection including school supplies, classroom furniture, educational tools, and even teacher-inspired fashion and accessories. Military servicemen and women, students, and first responders are all also eligible for free annual Club O memberships, which is available to any customer for a one-time fee of $19.99. All members of Overstock.com's Club O program can also earn up to 20 percent in Club O Rewards through Overstock.com's Extra Rewards Store.
