Media Contact:
Lauren Davis
Lauren.davis@omf.com

OneMain Financial Joins Time to Vote Initiative

Company makes commitment to ensure its 8,700 employees have time to vote on Election Day

NEW YORK – October 13, 2020 – OneMain Financial, the country's largest installment lender to hardworking Americans with nonprime credit, has joined the Time to Vote initiative, a nonpartisan coalition founded to increase voter participation.

"Voting is an important privilege and civic duty for all Americans," said Doug Shulman, President and CEO of OneMain. "OneMain is committed to giving all of our employees sufficient time to cast their ballots. Joining Time to Vote reflects our company values and is a commitment to ensure team members feel supported in their voting efforts."

OneMain's team members will be granted the flexibility they need to vote in person this year. Managers have been advised to be flexible with schedule adjustments and personal time requests on Election Day or pre-election days for in-person voting.

About OneMain Financial

OneMain Financial (NYSE: OMF) has been offering responsible and transparent loans for over 100 years. With almost 1,500 locations throughout 44 states, the company is committed to helping people with their personal loan needs. OneMain and its 8,700 team members are dedicated to the communities where they live and work. For additional information, please visit OneMainFinancial.com.