Media Contact
Kelly Ogburn OneMain Financial
kelly.ogburn@omf.com
(410) 537-9028

OneMain Financial Extends Relief to West Virginia Communities, Customers Impacted by Severe Storms

NEW YORK — August 13, 2026 – OneMain Financial, the leader in offering nonprime consumers responsible access to credit, is responding to the recent severe storms in West Virginia by supporting customers and communities in their time of need. To support recovery efforts in the affected communities, the company is making a $10,000 donation to the Tygart Valley United Way's Lewis Upshur Flood Assistance Fund in addition to extending relief options to eligible customers.

OneMain employs nearly 70 team members across 16 branches in West Virginia, including branches in Buckhannon and Clarksburg, located in Upshur and Harrison counties, respectively. Both communities experienced flooding during the event.

"Severe storms and flooding have caused real hardships for communities and residents across West Virginia," said Mary Hamilla, Regional Director for West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Virginia, and Ohio at OneMain Financial. "OneMain is here to support our customers and neighbors through the difficult recovery process."

OneMain is providing options to eligible customers impacted by the event. The assistance will be available through Sept. 7, 2026, for customers in Lewis and Upshur counties.

The company continues to monitor other counties that may have been affected or added to the federal declaration. Impacted customers should call 844-791-3990 to discuss assistance options.

###

About OneMain Financial
OneMain Financial (NYSE: OMF) is the leader in offering nonprime consumers responsible access to credit and is dedicated to improving the financial well-being of hardworking Americans. We empower our customers to solve today's problems and reach a better financial future through personalized solutions across 48 states, available online and in more than 1,300 locations. OneMain is committed to making a positive impact on the people and the communities we serve. For additional information, please visit www.OneMainFinancial.com.