OneMain Financial Named to Newsweek's List of the Top 100 Most Loved Workplaces For 2022

10/6/2022

Ranked Among U.S. Companies Recognized for Employee Sentiment and Satisfaction

NEW YORK--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- OneMain Financial, the leader in offering nonprime customers responsible access to credit, has been named a Top 100 Most Loved Workplace® by Newsweek. This annual list recognizes American companies based on employee feedback about the company's level of collaboration and respect, how they feel about their future at the company, alignment of values with their employer and opportunities for career achievement.

"Being one of the most loved workplaces in America is a testament to our more than 9,000 team members who bring their passion for improving our customers' financial well-being to work every day," said OneMain Chairman and CEO Doug Shulman. "OneMain is committed to fostering an inclusive, positive culture where team members have opportunities to grow."

The company's Most Loved Workplace® profile is available here.

The Top 100 Most Loved Workplaces list is published in collaboration with the Best Practice Institute (BPI). BPI conducted a comprehensive survey of more than 1.4 million employees from different companies with workforces varying in size from 50 to more than 10,000 people. BPI's research found that increased employee happiness is a major driver for higher productivity and increased retention.
