EVANSVILLE, Ind.--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- OneMain Financial, America's premier consumer finance company offering responsible personal loan products, announced today plans to increase its base salary for all hourly associates to a minimum of $14 per hour. In addition, all eligible team members will receive a one-time cash bonus of up to $600 as recognition of their contribution to the company's accomplishments in 2017.

"2017 was a very good year for OneMain," said Jay Levine, President and CEO, OneMain Financial. "Our team members are the foundation of our business and play an integral role in our success. We appreciate how hard they work each day to deliver superior customer experiences and are thrilled that we are able to further invest in them."

We're honored to be able to show our appreciation of their hard work through these well-deserved raises and bonuses," said Angela Celestin, executive vice president, human resources, OneMain Financial.
