3 June 2026

To easyJet shareholders (including holders of ordinary shares and American Depositary Receipts) and, for information only, persons with information rights, and participants in easyJet share plans.

Dear Sir / Madam

We are writing to you to inform you of recent developments relating to easyJet plc ("easyJet" or the "Company") as required under Rule 2.11 of the UK City Code on Takeovers and Mergers (the "Code").

On Friday 29 May 2026, Castlelake announced that it is in the early stages of considering a possible offer for easyJet (the "Possible Offer") (the "Castlelake Announcement"). The Board of easyJet has not received any approach from Castlelake and the Company published an announcement in response to the Possible Offer on 1 June 2026 (the "Company Announcement" and together with the Castlelake Announcement, the "Announcements").

Copies of the Announcements are now available under the "Investors" section of the Company's website at corporate.easyjet.com and may be viewed free of charge (subject to any applicable restrictions in your jurisdiction). For the avoidance of doubt, the content of this website is not incorporated into, and does not form part of, this letter.

This letter is not to be taken as a summary of the information in the Announcements and should not be regarded as a substitute for reading the Announcements in full.

Although the Castlelake Announcement has put the Company into what is known as an "offer period" under the Code, there can be no certainty that the Possible Offer will lead to a firm offer being made for the Company under the Code nor as to the terms on which any firm offer might be made. We will keep you informed of any further developments and in the meantime you are recommended not to take any action.

If you have any administrative questions, or would like to request a hard copy of the Announcements, you may contact the Company's registrar Equiniti by calling the helpline on + 44 (0)371 384 2577. Please use the country code if calling from abroad. Lines are open from 8.30 a.m. to 5.30 p.m., Monday to Friday, excluding public holidays in England and Wales.

You may also request that all future documents, announcements and information to be sent to you in relation to the Possible Offer, or any firm offer (if made), should be sent in hard copy form (rather than via website notification), again by calling the phone number above. No hard copy documents, announcements or information will be sent to you unless so requested.

Yours faithfully

Sir Stephen Hester
Chair

Disclosure requirements of the Takeover Code

Under Rule 8.3(a) of the Code, any person who is interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of an offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror (being any offeror other than an offeror in respect of which it has been announced that its offer is, or is likely to be, solely in cash) must make an Opening Position Disclosure following the commencement of the offer period and, if later, following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. An Opening Position Disclosure must contain details of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s). An Opening Position Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(a) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the commencement of the offer period and, if appropriate, by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the 10th business day following the announcement in which any securities exchange offeror is first identified. Relevant persons who deal in the relevant securities of the offeree company or of a securities exchange offeror prior to the deadline for making an Opening Position Disclosure must instead make a Dealing Disclosure.

Under Rule 8.3(b) of the Code, any person who is, or becomes, interested in 1% or more of any class of relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror must make a Dealing Disclosure if the person deals in any relevant securities of the offeree company or of any securities exchange offeror. A Dealing Disclosure must contain details of the dealing concerned and of the person's interests and short positions in, and rights to subscribe for, any relevant securities of each of (i) the offeree company and (ii) any securities exchange offeror(s), save to the extent that these details have previously been disclosed under Rule 8. A Dealing Disclosure by a person to whom Rule 8.3(b) applies must be made by no later than 3.30 pm (London time) on the business day following the date of the relevant dealing.

If two or more persons act together pursuant to an agreement or understanding, whether formal or informal, to acquire or control an interest in relevant securities of an offeree company or a securities exchange offeror, they will be deemed to be a single person for the purpose of Rule 8.3.

Opening Position Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company and by any offeror and Dealing Disclosures must also be made by the offeree company, by any offeror and by any persons acting in concert with any of them (see Rules 8.1, 8.2 and 8.4).

Details of the offeree and offeror companies in respect of whose relevant securities Opening Position Disclosures and Dealing Disclosures must be made can be found in the Disclosure Table on the Takeover Panel's website at www.thetakeoverpanel.org.uk, including details of the number of relevant securities in issue, when the offer period commenced and when any offeror was first identified. You should contact the Panel's Market Surveillance Unit on +44 (0)20 7638 0129 if you are in any doubt as to whether you are required to make an Opening Position Disclosure or a Dealing Disclosure.
