Lincoln Electric to Ring the Nasdaq Opening Bell on June 10, 2025

2025-06-10

Event Honors the Company's 30th Year Listed on the NASDAQ and its 130th Anniversary

CLEVELAND--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Lincoln Electric Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq: LECO) ("the Company"), the leading global manufacturer of advanced arc welding solutions, announced today that the Company will ring the Nasdaq Stock Market opening bell on Tuesday, June 10, 2025, which will begin at approximately 9:15am ET.

Chair, President and CEO, Steven B. Hedlund, along with members of the Company's Board of Directors and its leadership team, will participate in the ceremonial bell ringing at the Nasdaq MarketSite in Times Square. The event recognizes the Company's 30th anniversary listed on the NASDAQ and marks the Company's 130 years of innovative leadership in the arc welding industry since its founding in 1895.

"We are honored to be invited to Nasdaq to participate in the opening bell ceremony to mark two exciting milestones in Lincoln Electric's storied history," said Hedlund. "The event provides a meaningful occasion to recognize our organization's long standing success and the superior value we continue to generate. This would not be possible without the hard work and ingenuity of our dedicated team, as well as the trust and unwavering support of our customers, partners and shareholders."

The live broadcast will begin at 9:15 am ET and will be live-streamed at <https://www.nasdaq.com/marketsite/bell-ringing-ceremony> from the Nasdaq MarketSite Tower in New York City and is also available on Nasdaq's X and Facebook pages.
