Ventas, Inc. (NYSE: VTR) ("Ventas") said today that its wholly owned subsidiary, Lillibridge Healthcare Services, Inc. ("Lillibridge"), expects to commence construction on a $40 million, 250,000 square foot medical office building ("MOB") to be located on the campus of the new $350 million Woman's Hospital in Baton Rouge, Louisiana, a replacement hospital campus that will be aesthetically pleasing, technologically advanced, and focused on an exceptional patient experience. Woman's Hospital will own the entire campus, including the MOB.

"Lillibridge is honored to be chosen as the developer, architect, space planner and construction manager of the new MOB," said Todd W. "It will play a role in advancing medical care for women and infants in the fast-growing Baton Rouge area for years to come.

"Lillibridge has a distinguished track record of working with not-for-profit hospitals and health systems to expand healthcare in communities all around the country. The Woman's Hospital project demonstrates how Lillibridge uses healthcare real estate expertise to enable our clients to achieve their strategic objectives," Lillibridge continued.

The new MOB will be physically connected to Woman's Hospital and will house a comprehensive breast center, a maternal-fetal medicine center, infrastructure for an ambulatory surgery center, retail space and other potential outpatient services. The MOB will consist of two towers (four and five stories) with a shared atrium lobby. It is expected to be completed in late 2012.

The replacement campus is being built at Airline Highway and Pecue Lane in Baton Rouge, about five miles from the current Woman's Hospital campus, which will be vacated when the new hospital and MOB are completed.
