

Ventas Completes $7.6 Billion Acquisition of Nationwide Health Properties

July 1, 2011

CHICAGO, Jul 01, 2011 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- Ventas, Inc. (NYSE: VTR) ("Ventas" or the "Company") said today that it has completed its previously announced acquisition of Nationwide Health Properties, Inc. (NYSE: NHP) ("NHP") in a stock-for-stock transaction, creating one of the largest publicly-traded REITs and the leading healthcare REIT by equity value.

"With the completion of the NHP acquisition, Ventas is a $23 billion enterprise poised to thrive in the dynamic and growing healthcare real estate space," Ventas Chairman and Chief Executive Officer Debra A. Cafaro said. "Ventas owns a highly diversified and productive portfolio supported by powerful demographic demand. With 70 percent of our net operating income derived from private pay sources, a strong and flexible investment grade balance sheet and a powerful combined investment platform, Ventas is uniquely positioned to compete for a broad spectrum of seniors housing and healthcare real estate opportunities. We are confident that the NHP acquisition will benefit Ventas's shareholders, bondholders and customers as we seek to deliver another decade of excellence.

"NHP has a rich and successful 25 year history and we are delighted that three NHP directors have joined the Ventas Board: Douglas M. Pasquale, NHP's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Richard I. Gilchrist, and Robert D. Paulson, NHP's Lead Independent Director. I look forward to working with Doug as a Senior Advisor to ensure a successful transition, and am pleased to welcome our new colleagues as we continue to enhance value for all stakeholders," Cafaro added.

Ventas has previously stated that the NHP acquisition will be accretive to 2011 earnings. The Company expects to provide detailed financial projections for the year when it reports results for the second quarter of 2011.

The Company also announced that shareholders of both companies overwhelmingly voted in favor of the acquisition and certain related matters.

At a special meeting of Ventas shareholders held today in Chicago, more than 99.8 percent of the votes cast - representing approximately 87.7 percent of Ventas's shares outstanding - voted to approve the issuance of additional shares of Ventas common stock to NHP shareholders in connection with the acquisition.

At a special meeting of NHP shareholders held today in Newport Beach, approximately 98.9 percent of the votes cast - representing approximately 84.7 percent of NHP's shares outstanding - voted to adopt the merger agreement and approve the acquisition of NHP by Ventas.

Effective today, shares of NHP common stock will no longer be traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

All statements regarding the Company's or its tenants', operators', managers' or borrowers' expected future financial position, results of operations, cash flows, funds from operations, dividends and dividend plans, financing plans, business strategy, budgets, projected costs, operating metrics, capital expenditures, competitive positions, acquisitions, investment opportunities, dispositions, merger integration, growth opportunities, expected lease income, continued qualification as a real estate investment trust ("REIT"), plans and objectives of management for future operations and statements that include words such as "anticipate," "if," "believe," "plan," "estimate," "expect," "intend," "may," "could," "should," "will" and other similar expressions are forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking statements are inherently uncertain, and security holders must recognize that actual results may differ from the Company's expectations. The Company does not undertake a duty to update such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which they are made.

The Company's actual future results and trends may differ materially depending on a variety of factors discussed in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. These factors include without limitation: (a) the ability and willingness of the Company's tenants, operators, borrowers, managers and other third parties to meet and/or perform their obligations under their respective contractual arrangements with the Company, including, in some cases, their obligations to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Company from and against various claims, litigation and liabilities; (b) the ability of the Company's tenants, operators, borrowers and managers to maintain the financial strength and liquidity necessary to satisfy their respective obligations and liabilities to third parties, including without limitation obligations under their existing credit facilities and other indebtedness; (c) the Company's success in implementing its business strategy and the Company's ability to identify, underwrite, finance, consummate and integrate diversifying acquisitions or investments, including the NHP transaction and those in different asset types and outside the United States; (d) the nature and extent of future competition; (e) the extent of future or pending healthcare reform and regulation, including cost containment measures and changes in reimbursement policies, procedures and rates; (f) increases in the Company's cost of borrowing as a result of changes in interest rates and other factors; (g) the ability of the Company's operators and managers, as applicable, to deliver high quality services, to attract and retain qualified personnel and to attract residents and patients; (h) changes in general economic conditions and/or economic conditions in the markets in which the Company may, from time to time, compete, and the effect of those changes on the Company's revenues and its ability to access the capital markets or other sources of funds; (i) the Company's ability to pay down, refinance, restructure and/or extend its indebtedness as it becomes due; (j) the Company's ability and willingness to maintain its qualification as a REIT due to economic, market, legal, tax or other considerations; (k) final determination of the Company's taxable net income for the year ended December 31, 2010 and for the year ending December 31, 2011; (l) the ability and willingness of the Company's tenants to renew their leases with the Company upon expiration of the leases and the Company's ability to reposition its properties on the same or better terms in the event such leases expire and are not renewed by the Company's tenants or in the event the Company exercises its right to replace an existing tenant upon default; (m) risks associated with the Company's senior living operating portfolio, such as factors causing volatility in the Company's operating income and earnings generated by its properties, including without limitation national and regional economic conditions, costs of materials, energy, labor and services, employee benefit costs, insurance costs and professional and general liability claims, and the timely delivery of accurate property-level financial results for those properties; (n) the movement of U.S. and Canadian exchange rates; (o) year-over-year changes in the Consumer Price Index and the effect of those changes on the rent escalators, including the rent escalator for Master Lease 2 with Kindred, and the Company's earnings; (p) the Company's ability and the ability of its tenants, operators, borrowers and managers to obtain and maintain adequate liability and other insurance from reputable and financially stable providers; (q) the impact of increased operating costs and uninsured professional liability claims on the liquidity, financial condition and results of operations of the Company's tenants, operators, borrowers and managers, and the ability of the Company's tenants, operators, borrowers and managers to accurately estimate the magnitude of those claims; (r) risks associated with the Company's MOB portfolio and operations, including its ability to successfully design, develop and manage MOBs, to accurately estimate its costs in fixed fee-for-service projects and to retain key personnel; (s) the ability of the hospitals on or near whose campuses the Company's MOBs are located and their affiliated health systems to remain competitive and financially viable and to attract physicians and physician groups; (t) the Company's ability to maintain or expand its relationships with its existing and future hospital and health system clients; (u) risks associated with the Company's investments in joint ventures and unconsolidated entities, including its lack of sole decision-making authority and its reliance on its joint venture partners' financial condition; (v) the impact of market or issuer events on the liquidity or value of the Company's investments in marketable securities; and (w) the impact of any financial, accounting, legal or regulatory issues or litigation that may affect the Company or its major tenants, operators or managers. Many of these factors are beyond the control of the Company and its management.
