CHARLOTTE, N.C., May 13, 2025— Enpro Inc. (NYSE: NPO) today announced its intention to offer, subject to market and other conditions, $450 million in aggregate principal amount of its senior notes due 2033 (the “Senior Notes”) to persons reasonably believed to be qualified institutional buyers pursuant to Rule 144A under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and to non-U.S. persons in reliance on Regulation S under the Securities Act.

Enpro intends to use the net proceeds from the offering to fund the redemption of all of its outstanding 5.75% senior notes due 2026 (the “Outstanding Notes”), to repay a portion of the borrowings under its senior secured revolving credit facility used to fund the repayment on April 9, 2025 of all of its then-outstanding term loans under its senior secured credit facility, and to pay fees and expenses in connection with the offering. The conditional redemption of the Outstanding Notes is being separately announced by Enpro today.

Any offer of the Senior Notes will be made only by means of a private offering memorandum. The Senior Notes are not being registered under the Securities Act, or the securities laws of any other jurisdiction, and may not be offered or sold in the United States without registration or an applicable exemption from registration requirements. This press release also does not constitute a notice of redemption of, or an offer to purchase or a solicitation of an offer to purchase, the Outstanding Notes. The formal notice of redemption is being provided separately in accordance with the terms of the indenture governing the Outstanding Notes.
