MOODY'S NAMES SALLI SCHWARTZ AS GLOBAL HEAD OF STRATEGIC CAPITAL MANAGEMENT & TREASURER

NEW YORK, NOVEMBER 8, 2018

Moody's Corporation (NYSE: MCO) announced today that Salli Schwartz, Vice President, Treasurer, has been named Global Head of Strategic Capital Management and Treasurer for the Corporation. In this newly created position, effective immediately, Ms. Schwartz will lead a combined investor relations and treasury function, responsible for overseeing Moody's relationships with its debt and equity investors, sell side analysts, rating agencies and partner banks, and for executing the company's strategic capital planning activities.

"Combining our investor relations and treasury operations into a single, strategic capital management function will provide greater efficiency in our financial communications, and broaden the perspective we provide to our market constituents," said Mark Kaye, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Moody's. "Salli's prior experience in managing both investor relations and treasury, and her extensive familiarity with our global business strategy and operations, make her ideal to lead this combined function."

Ms. Schwartz joined Moody's in 2007 as part of the Corporate Development team. From 2011 to 2016, she served as Global Head of Investor Relations. In 2016, her role was expanded to include leadership of Moody's Global Communications team. She was appointed Vice President, Treasurer in 2017.

Prior to joining Moody's, Ms. Schwartz held positions at Citigroup and Legg Mason. She received an M.B.A. from Cornell University and a B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania.
