This weekend, PublicSq. is back on board as the primary sponsor of the No. 15 Rick Ware Racing car driven by JJ Yeley. However, this time around, the PublicSq. car is carrying more than just the names and logos of other freedom-loving businesses.

The hood of the No. 15 Mustang incorporates a special "Pray for Covenant" message to honor the innocent lives taken just a few weeks ago at The Covenant School in Nashville, Tennessee. PublicSq. has partnered with GiveSendGo Charities to raise $50,000 to help the victim's families and encourage their community. Understanding that recovering from this tragedy will be a long and difficult journey for the victims and their families, they are hoping that the support and awareness can help ease their burden.

Also joining PublicSq. on the car this weekend, in honor and support of this mission, are Nouri, Axos Bank, Brave Books, LC King Manufacturing, and Your American Flag Store.

In order to donate to this campaign to help support the victims and their families during this difficult time, visit www.GiveSendGo.com/Covenant. Every donation is considered tax-deductible and 100% of donations will go directly to this cause, thanks to the support of GiveSendGo, which will cover all processing fees.

Catch all the action this Sunday at Bristol Motor Speedway with the Food City Dirt Race starting at 7PM ET on FOX.
