The J.M. Smucker Co. Announces Plans to Close Indianapolis Manufacturing Facility in Continued Optimization of Sweet Baked Snacks Segment

2025-05-27

ORRVILLE, Ohio, May 27, 2025 /PRNewswire/ -- The J.M. Smucker Co. (NYSE: SJM) announced today plans to close its Indianapolis, Indiana manufacturing facility, which manufactures products from the Company's Hostess® brand, and consolidate operations into other existing facilities. The Company will close and pursue the sale of its Indianapolis manufacturing facility by early calendar year 2026.

"This decision continues the ongoing work to ensure our manufacturing network is optimized to mitigate costs and reduce complexity in support of the execution of our Sweet Baked Snacks strategy, which is focused on stabilizing the Hostess® business and positioning it for long-term growth," said Judd Freitag, Senior Vice President and General Manager, Pet and Sweet Baked Snacks. "Any decision that impacts our employees is only made after careful consideration. We appreciate the contributions of our Indianapolis employees, and we will support them through this transition."

The Company will provide additional information about the decision when it releases its fiscal year 2025 fourth quarter results.
