

U.S. Bank Business Edge™ Platinum Wins "Best for Borrowing" Small Business Credit Card Honors 3 Years in a Row from MONEY Magazine

October 11, 2016

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 11, 2016-- For the third consecutive year, MONEY Magazine has named the U.S. Bank Business Edge™ Platinum credit card "Best for Borrowing" in the Small Business category of their annual "Best Credit Cards" listing.

To pick the winners, MONEY and NerdWallet evaluated more than 2,200 current credit card offers, focusing on rewards, fees, introductory and regular APRs, sign-up bonuses, and other, more specialized perks. For each category, MONEY set parameters for what constituted a winner, and NerdWallet scoured its database to find candidates. MONEY then independently compared and fact-checked the cards and made the final decisions.

"It is an honor to be recognized as one of MONEY's best credit cards three years in a row," said Heather Wolfsmith, head of small business products for Retail Payments at U.S. Bank. "We are committed to helping businesses power their potential, and that's why we provide the best cash flow product in the market."

The Business Edge Platinum credit card offers 0% percent on purchases and balance transfers for the first 12 billing cycles, which is great for businesses to pay off large purchases, and there's no annual fee. See our website at www.usbankedge.com for the full details of this offer.
