

Ascent Private Capital Management of U.S. Bank Wins Best in Private Banking Award

3/1/2016

MINNEAPOLIS--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Mar. 1, 2016-- Ascent Private Capital Management of U.S. Bank has been honored with a best in class award for "Private Banking – Client Service" by Private Asset Management (PAM), which covers the wealth management and family-office industry. The award was accepted by Ascent Head of Private Banking Mark Foster at the PAM Awards ceremony in New York City on Feb. 22. Ascent has received a total of four awards from PAM since 2014.

"Once again, we are honored to be recognized by PAM for the unique services we offer our client families. This honor highlights our commitment to delivering the highest level of service to our clients in helping them achieve the greatest possible impact for their wealth," said Ascent President Michael Cole.

Ascent was also short-listed in three other award categories: "Best Private Wealth Manager - over $5 billion," "Best Multi-Family Office Overall - over $2 billion," and "Private Banking – Overall."

Now in their sixth year, The Private Asset Management Awards recognize investment professionals and advisors who have successfully serviced high-net-worth individuals in an increasingly complex economic environment. Nominees have demonstrated consistent financial progress, year-over-year growth, excellence in client satisfaction, and innovative new services. The judging process, using a panel of industry experts, is based on a mixture of qualitative and quantitative performance indicators.
