U.S. Bancorp
3Q26 Fixed Income Investor Presentation

Forward-looking Statements and Additional Information

The following information appears in accordance with the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

This presentation contains forward-looking statements about U.S. Bancorp. Statements that are not historical or current facts, including statements about beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements and are based on the information available to, and assumptions and estimates made by, management as of the date hereof. These forward-looking statements cover, among other things, future economic conditions and the anticipated future revenue, expenses, financial condition, asset quality, capital and liquidity levels, plans, prospects, targets, initiatives and operations of U.S. Bancorp. Forward-looking statements often use words such as “anticipates,” “targets,” “expects,” “hopes,” “estimates,” “projects,” “forecasts,” “intends,” “plans,” “goals,” “believes,” “continue” and other similar expressions or future or conditional verbs such as “will,” “may,” “might,” “should,” “would” and “could.”

Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those set forth in forward-looking statements, including the following risks and uncertainties: deterioration in general business, political and economic conditions or turbulence in domestic or global financial markets, which could adversely affect U.S. Bancorp’s revenues and the values of its assets and liabilities, reduce the availability of funding to certain financial institutions, lead to a tightening of credit, and increase stock price volatility; changes to statutes, regulations, or regulatory policies or practices, including capital and liquidity requirements, and the enforcement and interpretation of such laws and regulations, and U.S. Bancorp’s ability to address or satisfy those requirements and other requirements or conditions imposed by regulatory entities; changes in trade policy, including the imposition of tariffs or the impacts of retaliatory tariffs, or the effects of related litigation; changes in interest rates; increases in unemployment rates; deterioration in the credit quality of U.S. Bancorp’s loan portfolios or in the value of the collateral securing those loans; changes in commercial real estate occupancy rates; increases in Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) assessments, including due to bank failures; actions taken by governmental agencies to stabilize or reform the financial system and the effectiveness of such actions; turmoil and volatility in the financial services industry; risks related to originating and selling mortgages, including repurchase and indemnity demands, and related to U.S. Bancorp’s role as a loan servicer; impacts of current, pending or future litigation and governmental proceedings; increased competitive pressure; changes in customer behavior and preferences and the ability to implement technological changes to respond to customer needs and meet competitive demands; risks arising from the development, implementation, use and management of emerging technologies, including artificial intelligence, by U.S. Bancorp, its customers or other third parties and the ability to achieve expected or potential benefits, such as increased productivity, profitability and cost savings; failures or disruptions in or breaches of U.S. Bancorp’s operational, technology, data security or other security systems or infrastructure, or those of third parties, including as a result of cybersecurity incidents; failures to safeguard personal information; impacts of pandemics, natural disasters, terrorist activities, civil unrest, international hostilities and geopolitical events, including those arising from conflict in the Middle East; impacts of supply chain disruptions, rising inflation, slower growth or a recession; effects of climate change and related physical and transition risks; failure to execute on strategic or operational plans; effects of mergers and acquisitions, such as the acquisition of Condor Trading LP and its subsidiaries, including BTIG, LLC, and related integration, including that the expected benefits may take longer than anticipated to achieve or may not be achieved in entirety or at all and the costs relating to the combination may be greater than expected; effects of critical accounting policies and judgments; effects of changes in or interpretations of tax laws and regulations; management’s ability to effectively manage credit risk, market risk, operational risk, compliance risk, strategic risk, interest rate risk and liquidity risk; and the risks and uncertainties more fully discussed in the section entitled “Risk Factors” of U.S. Bancorp’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2025, and subsequent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Factors other than these risks also could adversely affect U.S. Bancorp’s results, and the reader should not consider these risks to be a complete set of all potential risks or uncertainties. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof, and U.S. Bancorp undertakes no obligation to update them in light of new information or future events.

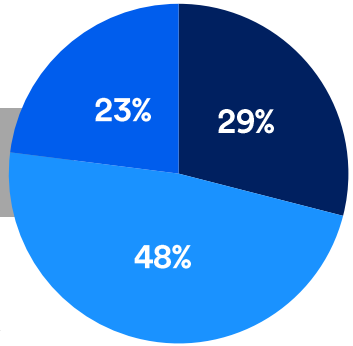

This presentation includes non-GAAP financial measures to describe U.S. Bancorp’s performance. The calculations of these measures are provided in slides 10 and 11. These disclosures should not be viewed as a substitute for operating results determined in accordance with GAAP, nor are they necessarily comparable to non-GAAP performance measures that may be presented by other companies.

This presentation was prepared as of November 5, 2026, and all statements made herein are given as of such date. Any use of or discussions regarding this presentation after such date do not reaffirm the statements made herein as of the date of such use or discussions.
