Peoples Financial Services Corp. and FNCB Bancorp, Inc. Complete Merger

7/1/2024

SCRANTON, Pa. and DUNMORE, Pa., July 1, 2024 /PRNewswire/ -- Peoples Financial Services Corp. ("Peoples") (Nasdaq: PFIS) today announced the completion of the merger of FNCB Bancorp, Inc. ("FNCB") with and into Peoples, and the merger of FNCB Bank with and into Peoples Security Bank and Trust Company ("Peoples Bank"), effective July 1, 2024.

"The completion of this merger unites two dynamic institutions to create a leading, $5.5 billion community bank with operations in Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey," said Craig Best, Chief Executive Officer and Director of Peoples and Peoples Bank. "The combination of Peoples and FNCB will benefit our customers and the communities we serve, create new opportunities for our employees and drive long-term growth and shareholder value."

"FNCB Bank's merger with Peoples Bank marks a significant milestone in our journey," said Jerry Champi, President of Peoples and Peoples Bank. "This union brings together two institutions with deep roots in community banking. Our customers will benefit from expanded products and services delivered by the familiar faces they have come to know and trust. Together, we will provide an even better banking experience for everyone."

The combined organization is expected to have approximately $5.5 billion in assets with approximately $4.0 billion in loans and $4.7 billion in deposits throughout its operations spanning Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey. All branches of the combined company will operate under the Peoples banner after the integration is completed. The combined company will trade under Peoples ticker symbol (PFIS) on the Nasdaq Global Select Stock Market.

Forward-looking Statements

This communication includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, with respect to the beliefs, goals, intentions, and expectations of Peoples regarding the FNCB merger; and other statements that are not historical facts. Forward-looking statements are typically identified by such words as "believe," "expect," "anticipate," "intend," "outlook," "estimate," "forecast," "project," "will," "should," and other similar words and expressions, and are subject to numerous assumptions, risks, and uncertainties, which change over time.

Additionally, forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made; Peoples does not assume any duty, and does not undertake, to update such forward-looking statements, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise. Furthermore, because forward-looking statements are subject to assumptions and uncertainties, actual results or future events could differ, possibly materially, from those indicated in or implied by such forward-looking statements as a result of a variety of factors, many of which are beyond the control of Peoples. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of the management of Peoples and are subject to significant risks and uncertainties outside of the control of Peoples. Caution should be exercised against placing undue reliance on forward-looking statements. The factors that could cause actual results to differ materially include the following: the possibility that the anticipated benefits of the FNCB merger will not be realized when expected or at all, including as a result of the impact of, or problems arising from, the integration of FNCB, or as a result of the strength of the economy and competitive factors in the areas where Peoples conducts business; the possibility that the FNCB merger may be more expensive to complete than anticipated, including as a result of unexpected factors or events; diversion of management's attention from ongoing business operations and opportunities; the possibility that Peoples may be unable to achieve expected synergies and operating efficiencies in the FNCB merger within the expected timeframes or at all and to successfully integrate the operations of Peoples; such integration may be more difficult, time-consuming or costly than expected; revenues following the FNCB merger may be lower than expected;

Peoples' success in executing its business plans and strategies and managing the risks involved in the foregoing; the dilution caused by Peoples' issuance of additional shares of its capital stock in connection with the FNCB merger; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Peoples; the ability of Peoples to meet expectations regarding the accounting and tax treatments of the FNCB merger; the risk that any announcements relating to the FNCB merger could have adverse effects on the market price of Peoples' common stock; effects of the completion of the FNCB merger on the ability of Peoples to retain customers and retain and hire key personnel and maintain relationships with its suppliers, and on its operating results and businesses generally; and risks related to the potential impact of general economic, political and market factors on Peoples; and the other factors discussed in the "Risk Factors" section of Peoples' Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, and in the "Risk Factors" and "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" sections of other reports Peoples may file with the SEC from time to time.
