LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL

To accompany certificate(s)

FOR REGISTERED HOLDERS OF COMMON SHARES OF LIFESPEAK INC.

This Letter of Transmittal, properly completed and duly executed by a registered holder (“Registered Shareholder”) of common shares (the “Common Shares”) in the capital of LifeSpeak Inc. (the “Corporation”), together with all other documents reasonably required by TSX Trust Company, as depositary (the “Depositary” or “TSX Trust”), must accompany the certificate(s) or a direct registration system statement (a “DRS Advice”) representing the Common Shares of the Corporation deposited in connection with the proposed plan of arrangement (the “Arrangement”) involving the acquisition of all of the outstanding Common Shares by 1001180076 Ontario Inc. (the “Purchaser”) pursuant to an arrangement agreement between the Corporation and the Purchaser dated April 17, 2025, that is being submitted for approval at the special meeting of holders of Common Shares (the “Shareholders”) to be held on June 23, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. (Toronto Time) (as may be adjourned or postponed, the “Meeting”). Shareholders are referred to the Notice of Special Meeting and management information circular of the Corporation dated May 30, 2025 (the “Circular”) prepared in connection with the Meeting that accompany this Letter of Transmittal. The terms and conditions of the Plan of Arrangement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix “B” to the Circular, are incorporated by reference in this Letter of Transmittal. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Letter of Transmittal have the meanings set out in the Circular. You are encouraged to read the Circular in its entirety. A copy of the Circular is available under the Corporation’s profile on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.

Following the Effective Time, all Shareholders (other than Dissenting Holders, if any, and the Rollover Shareholders in respect of their Rollover Shares) will be entitled to receive, in exchange for each Common Share held, C$0.32 in cash (the “Cash Consideration”). If the aggregate cash amount a Shareholder is entitled to receive would otherwise include a fraction of $0.01, then the aggregate cash amount such Shareholder shall be entitled to receive shall be rounded down to the nearest whole $0.01.

In respect of the Rollover Shareholders, the Purchaser will acquire the Rollover Shares in exchange for, in respect of each Rollover Share held, one Class A common share (the “Purchaser Shares”) in the capital of the Purchaser (the “Rollover Consideration”), in accordance with the terms of the Rollover Agreements (and in the case of Beedie Capital, the Exchange Agreement) and the Plan of Arrangement. No fractional Purchaser Shares will be issued pursuant to the Arrangement. Where the aggregate number of Purchaser Shares to be issued to a Rollover Shareholder would result in a fraction of a Purchaser Share being issuable, the number of Purchaser Shares will be rounded down to the nearest whole Purchaser Share, and the fractional entitlement will be cancelled without any compensation or other consideration.

The Corporation and the Purchaser will implement the Arrangement when all of the conditions to closing have been satisfied and/or waived, including court approval and the approval of the Arrangement Resolution by the Shareholders at the Meeting. The Arrangement is currently expected to be completed by the end of the second quarter of 2025; however, some of the conditions are beyond the Corporation's and/or the Purchaser's control, and as a result, there can be no assurance that the Arrangement will be completed, nor can the exact timing of the implementation of the Arrangement be predicted with certainty. Shareholders should refer to the Circular for more information regarding the expected timing for completion and other information relating to the Arrangement.

Each of the Purchaser, the Corporation and the Depositary, as applicable, shall be entitled to deduct and withhold (or cause to be deducted and withheld) from the amounts otherwise payable to any person under the Plan of Arrangement, the Exchange Agreement or the Rollover Agreement, such amounts as the Purchaser, the Corporation or the Depositary, as applicable, determines is required or permitted to be deducted and withheld with respect to such payment under the Income Tax Act (Canada) (as may be amended from time to time, the "Tax Act"), the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (as may be amended from time to time, the "U.S. Tax Code"), or any provision of any other Law. Any amount so deducted and withheld and properly remitted shall be treated for all purposes under the Plan of Arrangement, Rollover Agreement or the Exchange Agreement, as having been paid to the person, as applicable, in respect of which such deduction or withholding was made. Any amount so withheld shall be remitted to the appropriate Governmental Entity in accordance with applicable Law.

The Cash Consideration is denominated and will be paid in Canadian dollars.

Information about this Letter of Transmittal

This Letter of Transmittal is for use by Registered Shareholders only and is not to be used by non-Registered Shareholders. Shareholders whose Common Shares are registered in the name of a nominee, broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company or other intermediary (each, an "Intermediary") should NOT use this Letter of Transmittal and should contact that Intermediary for instructions and assistance in depositing those Common Shares.

In order for this Letter of Transmittal to be validly completed, the undersigned is required to provide and complete all of the necessary information for each of the steps indicated below that are applicable to the Registered Shareholder. The Depositary or your financial, legal, tax or other professional advisors can assist you in completing this Letter of Transmittal. Any Letter of Transmittal, once deposited with the Depositary, will be irrevocable and may not be withdrawn by a Shareholder, unless the Arrangement is not completed and the Arrangement Agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

Registered Shareholders who do not forward to the Depositary a validly completed and duly executed Letter of Transmittal, together with the certificate(s) or DRS Advice(s) representing their Common Shares and any other documents reasonably required by the Depositary in accordance with the instructions set forth in this Letter of Transmittal, will not receive the Cash Consideration (less any applicable withholdings) to which they are entitled or, in the case of Rollover Shareholders, the Rollover Consideration to which they are entitled, until such deposit is made and received by the Depositary and until the same is processed for payment or delivery, as applicable, by the Depositary.

In order to permit the timely receipt of the Cash Consideration (less any applicable withholdings) or the Rollover Consideration (as applicable) in connection with the Arrangement following the Effective Time, it is recommended that this Letter of Transmittal together with the accompanying certificate(s) or DRS Advice(s) representing the Common Shares deposited herewith and all other documents or other necessary information be received by the Depositary at the offices specified on the back cover before the Effective Date. Do not send certificates or DRS Advice(s) representing Common Shares or this Letter of Transmittal to the Corporation or the Purchaser.

At the Effective Time (whether or not Registered Shareholders deliver this Letter of Transmittal, the certificates or DRS Advice(s) representing Common Shares and any other required documentation to the Depositary), Registered Shareholders will cease to be Shareholders of the Corporation and the certificate(s) or DRS Advice(s), as applicable, for their Common Shares shall represent only (a) in the case of Registered Shareholders (other than Rollover Shareholders), the right to receive the aggregate Cash Consideration in respect of such Common Shares provided under the Plan of Arrangement, less any amounts withheld as provided under the Arrangement Agreement or the Plan of Arrangement; (b) in the case of Rollover Shareholders, the right to receive the Rollover Consideration in respect of such Common Shares provided under the Plan of Arrangement, or (c) in the case of Registered Shareholders (other than Rollover Shareholders) who properly exercise Dissent Rights, the right to receive fair value for their Common Shares less any amounts withheld as provided under the Arrangement Agreement or the Plan of Arrangement. See the section entitled “Dissenting Shareholders’ Rights” in the Circular. Under no circumstances will interest accrue or be paid by the Corporation, the Purchaser or the Depositary on the Cash Consideration to persons depositing Common Shares with the Depositary, regardless of any delay in making any payment for the Common Shares. The Depositary will act as the agent of persons who have deposited Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement for the purpose of receiving and transmitting the Cash Consideration or Rollover Consideration (as applicable) to such persons, and receipt of the Cash Consideration or Rollover Consideration (as applicable) by the Depositary will be deemed to constitute receipt of payment by persons depositing Common Shares.

If you are a U.S. Shareholder (as defined below in Box C), you must complete and deliver with this Letter of Transmittal the attached IRS Form W-9, or the applicable IRS Form W-8. See Instruction #8.

Please read the Circular and the instructions set out below carefully before completing this Letter of Transmittal. Delivery of this Letter of Transmittal to an address other than the addresses as set forth herein will not constitute a valid delivery. If Common Shares are registered in different names, a separate Letter of Transmittal must be submitted for each different registered owner. See Instruction #5. Rollover Shareholders who have entered into Rollover Agreements (or, in the case of Beedie Capital, the Exchange Agreement) must also complete this Letter of Transmittal. See Instruction #1. Please note that the delivery of this Letter of Transmittal, together with your share certificate(s) or DRS Advice(s) representing Common Shares, and any other document reasonably required by the Depositary, does not constitute a vote in favour of the Arrangement Resolution or any other matters to be considered at the Meeting. To exercise your right to vote at the Meeting, you must complete and return the form of proxy that accompanied the Circular in accordance with the instructions set out in the Circular. See “Information Concerning the Meeting and Voting” in the Circular.

IF ANY REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER DOES NOT DELIVER A PROPERLY COMPLETED LETTER OF TRANSMITTAL, THEIR CERTIFICATE(S) OR DRS ADVICE(S) REPRESENTING COMMON SHARES AND ALL OTHER REQUIRED DOCUMENTS TO THE DEPOSITARY ON OR BEFORE THE SIXTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE EFFECTIVE DATE, SUCH CERTIFICATE OR DRS ADVICE REPRESENTING COMMON SHARES SHALL CEASE TO REPRESENT A CLAIM BY OR INTEREST OF ANY FORMER REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER OF ANY KIND OR NATURE AGAINST OR IN THE CORPORATION OR THE PURCHASER. ON SUCH DATE, ALL CONSIDERATION TO WHICH SUCH FORMER REGISTERED SHAREHOLDER WAS ENTITLED SHALL BE DEEMED TO BE SURRENDERED TO THE PURCHASER.

There will be no duty or obligation of the Purchaser, the Corporation or the Depositary to give notice of any defect or irregularity in any deposit and no liability will be incurred for failure to do so. The granting of a waiver to one or more Registered Shareholders does not constitute a waiver for any other Registered Shareholders.
- (f) Before completing this Letter of Transmittal, you are urged to read the accompanying Circular and discuss any questions with financial, legal and/or tax advisors.

6. Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates

If a share certificate has been lost, destroyed or stolen, this Letter of Transmittal should be completed as fully as possible and forwarded, together with a letter describing the loss, destruction or theft, to the Depositary. The Registered Shareholder will be required to complete and submit certain documentation, including a bond and/or indemnity, before payment for the Common Shares can be received by the Registered Shareholder. If a DRS Advice representing Common Shares has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the holder can request a copy of the DRS Advice by contacting TSX Trust Company at 416-342-1091 or toll-free at 1-866-600-5869, with no bond indemnity required and such copy of the DRS Advice should be deposited with this Letter of Transmittal.

If the Arrangement does not proceed for any reason, the enclosed certificate(s) representing the Common Shares and other relevant documents will be returned forthwith to the undersigned in accordance with the delivery instructions in this Letter of Transmittal, or failing such address being specified, to the undersigned at the last address of the undersigned as it appears on the register of the Corporation maintained by TSX Trust, in its capacity as transfer agent and registrar of the Corporation, or in the case of Common Shares delivered by book-entry transfer, the Depositary will credit the Common Shares to the applicable account.

8. U.S. Shareholders and Backup Withholding

The following does not constitute a summary of the tax consequences with respect to the disposition of Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement. Registered Shareholders should review the Circular and consult their own tax advisors having regard to their own particular circumstances to determine the particular tax consequences to them of a disposition of Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement.

In order to avoid “backup withholding” of United States federal income tax on payments made with respect to the disposition of Common Shares pursuant to the Arrangement, a Shareholder that is a U.S. Shareholder (as defined in Box C above) must generally provide the person’s correct taxpayer identification number (“TIN”) on the IRS Form W-9 included herewith and certify, under penalties of perjury, that (a) such TIN is correct (or that such U.S. holder is awaiting a TIN), (b) such U.S. Shareholder is not subject to backup withholding because (i) such U.S. Shareholder has not been notified by the United States Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) that such U.S. Shareholder is subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, (ii) the IRS has notified such U.S. Shareholder that he, she or it is no longer subject to backup withholding, or (iii) such U.S. Shareholder is exempt from backup withholding, and (c) such U.S. Shareholder is a U.S. person (as defined below) (including a U.S. resident alien). The TIN for an individual United States citizen or resident is the individual’s social security number. If the correct TIN is not provided or if any other information is not correctly provided, payments made with respect to the disposition of Common Shares may be subject to backup withholding at the applicable statutory rate (currently 24%).

For the purposes of this Letter of Transmittal, a “U.S. holder” or “U.S. person” means: a beneficial owner of Common Shares that, for United States federal income tax purposes, is (a) an individual citizen or resident of the United States, (b) a corporation, or other entity classified as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes, that is created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (c) an estate if the income of such estate is subject to United States federal income tax regardless of the source of such income, (d) a trust if (i) such trust has validly elected to be treated as a U.S. person for United States federal income tax purposes or (ii) a United States court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of such trust, or (e) a partnership, limited liability company or other entity classified as a partnership for United States federal income tax purposes that is created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia.

Backup withholding is not an additional United States federal income tax. Rather, the United States federal income tax liability of persons subject to backup withholding will be reduced by the amount withheld. If backup withholding results in an overpayment of taxes, a refund may be obtained provided that the required information is properly and timely furnished to the IRS.

Certain persons (including, among others, corporations, certain “not-for-profit” organizations, and certain non-U.S. persons) are not subject to backup withholding. To prevent possible erroneous backup withholding, an exempt Shareholder that is a U.S. holder should complete IRS Form W-9, including the “Exemptions” field in Box 4 on the IRS Form W-9. See the W-9 Specific Instructions for additional instructions. A Shareholder should consult his, her or its tax advisor as to the Shareholder’s qualification for an exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining such exemption.

If a U.S. holder does not have a TIN, such U.S. holder should: (a) consult the W-9 Instructions for instructions as to how to apply for a TIN; (b) write “Applied For” in the space for the TIN in Part I of IRS Form W-9; and (c) sign and date IRS Form W-9. The Depository may withhold on all payments made prior to the time a properly certified TIN is provided to it. A U.S. holder who writes “Applied For” in Part I of IRS Form W-9 should furnish the Depository with such U.S. Shareholder’s TIN as soon as it is received. In such case, the Depository may withhold a portion of the gross proceeds of any payment made to such U.S. holder prior to the time a properly certified TIN is provided to the Depository, and if the Depository is not provided with a TIN within 60 days, such amounts will be paid over to the IRS.

Failure to furnish TIN — If you fail to furnish your correct TIN, you are subject to a penalty of US$50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Shareholders that are not U.S. holders that receive payments in the U.S. or that provide an address located in the U.S. should return a properly completed IRS Form W-8 that is appropriate to the non-U.S. holder’s circumstances, a copy of which is available from the Depository upon request, or at <https://www.irs.gov/forms-pubs/about-form-w-8>. All non-U.S. holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the appropriate IRS Form W-8 to be provided by such non-U.S. holder. Failure to provide the proper IRS Form W-8 could result in backup withholding at the applicable statutory rate (currently 24%).

All Shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisors to determine which forms should be used and whether they are exempt from U.S. backup withholding.

9. Payment Entitlement Pickup Locations

The Depositary will mail the Cash Consideration payable to such Registered Shareholder, or in the case of a Rollover Shareholder, email the non-transferable written acknowledgement representing the Rollover Consideration, in accordance with the information provided in Box “A” or Box “B”, as applicable. Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on line 1 to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is generally your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. See also What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding; and Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

What's New

Line 3a has been modified to clarify how a disregarded entity completes this line. An LLC that is a disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Otherwise, it should check the "LLC" box and enter its appropriate tax classification.

New line 3b has been added to this form. A flow-through entity is required to complete this line to indicate that it has direct or indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries when it provides the Form W-9 to another flow-through entity in which it has an ownership interest. This change is intended to provide a flow-through entity with information regarding the status of its indirect foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, so that it can satisfy any applicable reporting requirements. For example, a partnership that has any indirect foreign partners may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3. See the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS is giving you this form because they must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN), which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-INT (interest earned or paid).
- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds).
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds).
- Form 1099-NEC (nonemployee compensation).
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers).
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions).
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third-party network transactions).
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), and 1098-T (tuition).
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt).
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property).

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

Caution: If you don't return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

By signing the filled-out form, you:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued);
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding; or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee; and
4. Certify to your non-foreign status for purposes of withholding under chapter 3 or 4 of the Code (if applicable); and
5. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting is correct. See What Is FATCA Reporting, later, for further information.

Note: If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien;
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States;
- An estate (other than a foreign estate); or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding. Payments made to foreign persons, including certain distributions, allocations of income, or transfers of sales proceeds, may be subject to withholding under chapter 3 or chapter 4 of the Code (sections 1441–1474). Under those rules, if a Form W-9 or other certification of non-foreign status has not been received, a withholding agent, transferee, or partnership (payor) generally applies presumption rules that may require the payor to withhold applicable tax from the recipient, owner, transferor, or partner (payee). See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities.

The following persons must provide Form W-9 to the payor for purposes of establishing its non-foreign status.

- In the case of a disregarded entity with a U.S. owner, the U.S. owner of the disregarded entity and not the disregarded entity.
- In the case of a grantor trust with a U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner, generally, the U.S. grantor or other U.S. owner of the grantor trust and not the grantor trust.
- In the case of a U.S. trust (other than a grantor trust), the U.S. trust and not the beneficiaries of the trust.

See Pub. 515 for more information on providing a Form W-9 or a certification of non-foreign status to avoid withholding.

Foreign person. If you are a foreign person or the U.S. branch of a foreign bank that has elected to be treated as a U.S. person (under Regulations section 1.1441-1(b)(2)(iv) or other applicable section for chapter 3 or 4 purposes), do not use Form W-9. Instead, use the appropriate Form W-8 or Form 8233 (see Pub. 515). If you are a qualified foreign pension fund under Regulations section 1.897(l)-1(d), or a partnership that is wholly owned by qualified foreign pension funds, that is treated as a non-foreign person for purposes of section 1445 withholding, do not use Form W-9. Instead, use Form W-8EXP (or other certification of non-foreign status).

Nonresident alien who becomes a resident alien. Generally, only a nonresident alien individual may use the terms of a tax treaty to reduce or eliminate U.S. tax on certain types of income. However, most tax treaties contain a provision known as a saving clause. Exceptions specified in the saving clause may permit an exemption from tax to continue for certain types of income even after the payee has otherwise become a U.S. resident alien for tax purposes.

If you are a U.S. resident alien who is relying on an exception contained in the saving clause of a tax treaty to claim an exemption from U.S. tax on certain types of income, you must attach a statement to Form W-9 that specifies the following five items.

1. The treaty country. Generally, this must be the same treaty under which you claimed exemption from tax as a nonresident alien.
2. The treaty article addressing the income.
3. The article number (or location) in the tax treaty that contains the saving clause and its exceptions.
4. The type and amount of income that qualifies for the exemption from tax.
5. Sufficient facts to justify the exemption from tax under the terms of the treaty article.

Example. Article 20 of the U.S.-China income tax treaty allows an exemption from tax for scholarship income received by a Chinese student temporarily present in the United States. Under U.S. law, this student will become a resident alien for tax purposes if their stay in the United States exceeds 5 calendar years. However, paragraph 2 of the first Protocol to the U.S.-China treaty (dated April 30, 1984) allows the provisions of Article 20 to continue to apply even after the Chinese student becomes a resident alien of the United States. A Chinese student who qualifies for this exception (under paragraph 2 of the first Protocol) and is relying on this exception to claim an exemption from tax on their scholarship or fellowship income would attach to Form W-9 a statement that includes the information described above to support that exemption.

If you are a nonresident alien or a foreign entity, give the requester the appropriate completed Form W-8 or Form 8233.

Backup Withholding

What is backup withholding? Persons making certain payments to you must under certain conditions withhold and pay to the IRS 24% of such payments. This is called “backup withholding.” Payments that may be subject to backup withholding include, but are not limited to, interest, tax-exempt interest, dividends, broker and barter exchange transactions, rents, royalties, nonemployee pay, payments made in settlement of payment card and third-party network transactions, and certain payments from fishing boat operators. Real estate transactions are not subject to backup withholding.

You will not be subject to backup withholding on payments you receive if you give the requester your correct TIN, make the proper certifications, and report all your taxable interest and dividends on your tax return.

Payments you receive will be subject to backup withholding if:

1. You do not furnish your TIN to the requester;
2. You do not certify your TIN when required (see the instructions for Part II for details);
3. The IRS tells the requester that you furnished an incorrect TIN;
4. The IRS tells you that you are subject to backup withholding because you did not report all your interest and dividends on your tax return (for reportable interest and dividends only); or
5. You do not certify to the requester that you are not subject to backup withholding, as described in item 4 under “By signing the filled-out form” above (for reportable interest and dividend accounts opened after 1983 only).

Certain payees and payments are exempt from backup withholding. See Exempt payee code, later, and the separate Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

See also Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding, earlier.

What Is FATCA Reporting?

The Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) requires a participating foreign financial institution to report all U.S. account holders that are specified U.S. persons. Certain payees are exempt from FATCA reporting. See Exemption from FATCA reporting code, later, and the Instructions for the Requester of Form W-9 for more information.

Updating Your Information

You must provide updated information to any person to whom you claimed to be an exempt payee if you are no longer an exempt payee and anticipate receiving reportable payments in the future from this person. For example, you may need to provide updated information if you are a C corporation that elects to be an S corporation, or if you are no longer tax exempt. In addition, you must furnish a new Form W-9 if the name or TIN changes for the account, for example, if the grantor of a grantor trust dies.

Penalties

Failure to furnish TIN. If you fail to furnish your correct TIN to a requester, you are subject to a penalty of $50 for each such failure unless your failure is due to reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

Civil penalty for false information with respect to withholding. If you make a false statement with no reasonable basis that results in no backup withholding, you are subject to a $500 penalty.

Criminal penalty for falsifying information. Willfully falsifying certifications or affirmations may subject you to criminal penalties including fines and/or imprisonment.

Misuse of TINs. If the requester discloses or uses TINs in violation of federal law, the requester may be subject to civil and criminal penalties.

Specific Instructions

Line 1

You must enter one of the following on this line; do not leave this line blank. The name should match the name on your tax return.

If this Form W-9 is for a joint account (other than an account maintained by a foreign financial institution (FFI)), list first, and then circle, the name of the person or entity whose number you entered in Part I of Form W-9. If you are providing Form W-9 to an FFI to document a joint account, each holder of the account that is a U.S. person must provide a Form W-9.

• Individual. Generally, enter the name shown on your tax return. If you have changed your last name without informing the Social Security Administration (SSA) of the name change, enter your first name, the last name as shown on your social security card, and your new last name.

Note for ITIN applicant: Enter your individual name as it was entered on your Form W-7 application, line 1a. This should also be the same as the name you entered on the Form 1040 you filed with your application.

• Sole proprietor. Enter your individual name as shown on your Form 1040 on line 1. Enter your business, trade, or "doing business as" (DBA) name on line 2.

• Partnership, C corporation, S corporation, or LLC, other than a disregarded entity. Enter the entity's name as shown on the entity's tax return on line 1 and any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

• Other entities. Enter your name as shown on required U.S. federal tax documents on line 1. This name should match the name shown on the charter or other legal document creating the entity. Enter any business, trade, or DBA name on line 2.

• Disregarded entity. In general, a business entity that has a single owner, including an LLC, and is not a corporation, is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner (a disregarded entity). See Regulations section 301.7701-2(c)(2). A disregarded entity should check the appropriate box for the tax classification of its owner. Enter the owner's name on line 1. The name of the owner entered on line 1 should never be a disregarded entity. The name on line 1 should be the name shown on the income tax return on which the income should be reported. For example, if a foreign LLC that is treated as a disregarded entity for U.S. federal tax purposes has a single owner that is a U.S. person, the U.S. owner's name is required to be provided on line 1. If the direct owner of the entity is also a disregarded entity, enter the first owner that is not disregarded for federal tax purposes. Enter the disregarded entity's name on line 2. If the owner of the disregarded entity is a foreign person, the owner must complete an appropriate Form W-8 instead of a Form W-9. This is the case even if the foreign person has a U.S. TIN.

Line 2

If you have a business name, trade name, DBA name, or disregarded entity name, enter it on line 2.

Line 3a

Check the appropriate box on line 3a for the U.S. federal tax classification of the person whose name is entered on line 1. Check only one box on line 3a.

IF the entity/individual on line 1 is a(n) . . .	THEN check the box for . . .
• Corporation	Corporation.
• Individual or • Sole proprietorship	Individual/sole proprietor.
• LLC classified as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes or • LLC that has filed Form 8832 or 2553 electing to be taxed as a corporation	Limited liability company and enter the appropriate tax classification: P = Partnership, C = C corporation, or S = S corporation.
• Partnership	Partnership.
• Trust/estate	Trust/estate.

Line 3b

Check this box if you are a partnership (including an LLC classified as a partnership for U.S. federal tax purposes), trust, or estate that has any foreign partners, owners, or beneficiaries, and you are providing this form to a partnership, trust, or estate, in which you have an ownership interest. You must check the box on line 3b if you receive a Form W-8 (or documentary evidence) from any partner, owner, or beneficiary establishing foreign status or if you receive a Form W-9 from any partner, owner, or beneficiary that has checked the box on line 3b.

Note: A partnership that provides a Form W-9 and checks box 3b may be required to complete Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065). For more information, see the Partnership Instructions for Schedules K-2 and K-3 (Form 1065).

If you are required to complete line 3b but fail to do so, you may not receive the information necessary to file a correct information return with the IRS or furnish a correct payee statement to your partners or beneficiaries. See, for example, sections 6698, 6722, and 6724 for penalties that may apply.

Exemption from FATCA reporting code. The following codes identify payees that are exempt from reporting under FATCA. These codes apply to persons submitting this form for accounts maintained outside of the United States by certain foreign financial institutions. Therefore, if you are only submitting this form for an account you hold in the United States, you may leave this field blank. Consult with the person requesting this form if you are uncertain if the financial institution is subject to these requirements. A requester may indicate that a code is not required by providing you with a Form W-9 with "Not Applicable" (or any similar indication) entered on the line for a FATCA exemption code.

Note: You may wish to consult with the financial institution requesting this form to determine whether the FATCA code and/or exempt payee code should be completed.

Line 5

Enter your address (number, street, and apartment or suite number). This is where the requester of this Form W-9 will mail your information returns. If this address differs from the one the requester already has on file, enter "NEW" at the top. If a new address is provided, there is still a chance the old address will be used until the payor changes your address in their records.

Line 6

Enter your city, state, and ZIP code.

Part I. Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. If you are a resident alien and you do not have, and are not eligible to get, an SSN, your TIN is your IRS ITIN. Enter it in the entry space for the Social security number. If you do not have an ITIN, see How to get a TIN below.

If you are a sole proprietor and you have an EIN, you may enter either your SSN or EIN.

If you are a single-member LLC that is disregarded as an entity separate from its owner, enter the owner's SSN (or EIN, if the owner has one). If the LLC is classified as a corporation or partnership, enter the entity's EIN.

Note: See What Name and Number To Give the Requester, later, for further clarification of name and TIN combinations.

How to get a TIN. If you do not have a TIN, apply for one immediately. To apply for an SSN, get Form SS-5, Application for a Social Security Card, from your local SSA office or get this form online at www.SSA.gov. You may also get this form by calling 800-772-1213. Use Form W-7, Application for IRS Individual Taxpayer Identification Number, to apply for an ITIN, or Form SS-4, Application for Employer Identification Number, to apply for an EIN. You can apply for an EIN online by accessing the IRS website at www.irs.gov/EIN. Go to www.irs.gov/Forms to view, download, or print Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4. Or, you can go to www.irs.gov/OrderForms to place an order and have Form W-7 and/or Form SS-4 mailed to you within 15 business days.

If you are asked to complete Form W-9 but do not have a TIN, apply for a TIN and enter "Applied For" in the space for the TIN, sign and date the form, and give it to the requester. For interest and dividend payments, and certain payments made with respect to readily tradable instruments, you will generally have 60 days to get a TIN and give it to the requester before you are subject to backup withholding on payments. The 60-day rule does not apply to other types of payments. You will be subject to backup withholding on all such payments until you provide your TIN to the requester.

Note: Entering "Applied For" means that you have already applied for a TIN or that you intend to apply for one soon. See also Establishing U.S. status for purposes of chapter 3 and chapter 4 withholding, earlier, for when you may instead be subject to withholding under chapter 3 or 4 of the Code.

Caution: A disregarded U.S. entity that has a foreign owner must use the appropriate Form W-8.

Part II. Certification

To establish to the withholding agent that you are a U.S. person, or resident alien, sign Form W-9. You may be requested to sign by the withholding agent even if item 1, 4, or 5 below indicates otherwise.

For a joint account, only the person whose TIN is shown in Part I should sign (when required). In the case of a disregarded entity, the person identified on line 1 must sign. Exempt payees, see Exempt payee code, earlier.

Signature requirements. Complete the certification as indicated in items 1 through 5 below.

1. Interest, dividend, and barter exchange accounts opened before 1984 and broker accounts considered active during 1983. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

2. Interest, dividend, broker, and barter exchange accounts opened after 1983 and broker accounts considered inactive during 1983. You must sign the certification or backup withholding will apply. If you are subject to backup withholding and you are merely providing your correct TIN to the requester, you must cross out item 2 in the certification before signing the form.

3. Real estate transactions. You must sign the certification. You may cross out item 2 of the certification.

4. Other payments. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification unless you have been notified that you have previously given an incorrect TIN. "Other payments" include payments made in the course of the requester's trade or business for rents, royalties, goods (other than bills for merchandise), medical and health care services (including payments to corporations), payments to a nonemployee for services, payments made in settlement of payment card and third-party network transactions, payments to certain fishing boat crew members and fishermen, and gross proceeds paid to attorneys (including payments to corporations).

5. Mortgage interest paid by you, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, qualified tuition program payments (under section 529), ABLE accounts (under section 529A), IRA, Coverdell ESA, Archer MSA or HSA contributions or distributions, and pension distributions. You must give your correct TIN, but you do not have to sign the certification.

Secure Your Tax Records From Identity Theft

Identity theft occurs when someone uses your personal information, such as your name, SSN, or other identifying information, without your permission to commit fraud or other crimes. An identity thief may use your SSN to get a job or may file a tax return using your SSN to receive a refund.

To reduce your risk:

- Protect your SSN,
- Ensure your employer is protecting your SSN, and
- Be careful when choosing a tax return preparer.

If your tax records are affected by identity theft and you receive a notice from the IRS, respond right away to the name and phone number printed on the IRS notice or letter.

If your tax records are not currently affected by identity theft but you think you are at risk due to a lost or stolen purse or wallet, questionable credit card activity, or a questionable credit report, contact the IRS Identity Theft Hotline at 800-908-4490 or submit Form 14039.

For more information, see Pub. 5027, Identity Theft Information for Taxpayers.

Victims of identity theft who are experiencing economic harm or a systemic problem, or are seeking help in resolving tax problems that have not been resolved through normal channels, may be eligible for Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) assistance. You can reach TAS by calling the TAS toll-free case intake line at 877-777-4778 or TTY/TDD 800-829-4059.

Protect yourself from suspicious emails or phishing schemes.

Phishing is the creation and use of email and websites designed to mimic legitimate business emails and websites. The most common act is sending an email to a user falsely claiming to be an established legitimate enterprise in an attempt to scam the user into surrendering private information that will be used for identity theft.

The IRS does not initiate contacts with taxpayers via emails. Also, the IRS does not request personal detailed information through email or ask taxpayers for the PIN numbers, passwords, or similar secret access information for their credit card, bank, or other financial accounts.

If you receive an unsolicited email claiming to be from the IRS, forward this message to phishing@irs.gov. You may also report misuse of the IRS name, logo, or other IRS property to the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at 800-366-4484. You can forward suspicious emails to the Federal Trade Commission at spam@uce.gov or report them at www.ftc.gov/complaint. You can contact the FTC at www.ftc.gov/idtheft or 877-IDTHEFT (877-438-4338). If you have been the victim of identity theft, see www.IdentityTheft.gov and Pub. 5027.

Go to www.irs.gov/IdentityTheft to learn more about identity theft and how to reduce your risk.

The person collecting this form uses the information on the form to file information returns with the IRS, reporting the above information. Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their laws. The information may also be disclosed to other countries under a treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce civil and criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism. You must provide your TIN whether or not you are required to file a tax return. Under section 3406, payors must generally withhold a percentage of taxable interest, dividends, and certain other payments to a payee who does not give a TIN to the payor.
