

Canada Goose Global Environmental Policy

At Canada Goose, we demonstrate our commitment to sustainability through our products, innovating and evolving them to reduce their impact on the environment, while maintaining their high quality and function. We continue to change the way we work, implementing our strategy of improving the efficiency of our buildings, reducing carbon sources and embracing renewable energy while reducing waste and practicing smart resource stewardship.

Our Sustainability Team sits at the core of our environmental work, liaising with employees, suppliers, leaders and executives across the business to ensure we continue to make progress and ultimately achieve our targets.

Commitments

People

We are committed to having a positive impact on the lives of our employees and the global community, continuously pushing our boundaries to ensure a sustainable future for the planet and everyone on it.

Product

We are committed to designing durable products that stand the test of time, ensuring they remain in circulation for as long as possible.

We are committed to minimizing the environmental impacts of our products, prioritizing the use of verified Preferred Fibre and Materials (PFMs).

We are committed to enhancing supply chain transparency, encouraging suppliers to not only meet our standards but continuously improve processes, including responsible chemical usage, while fostering safer, more inclusive workplaces.

Planet

We are committed to protecting the environment by following all relevant environmental laws and regulations, ensuring our operations meet local, national, and international standards.

We are committed to reducing our carbon footprint across our value chain and minimizing energy consumption in our facilities to lessen the impact on the planet.

We are committed to reducing and diverting waste generated by our operations by implementing efficient practices and promoting the use of sustainable packaging solutions.

CANADA GOOSE®

We have embedded a culture of citizenship across our organization, where all employees at Canada Goose are engaged in our pursuit of a more sustainable future.
