LEVERAGING OUR CORE COMPETENCY AS A DIVERSIFIED METALS MANUFACTURER

Business Strategy

- ✓ Operate and grow market leading businesses
- ✓ Measure and improve the profitability of our businesses via Transformation and LEAN
- ✓ Acquire higher margin, high value-added manufacturing businesses
- ✓ Use innovation and new product development to accelerate organic growth

Operating Goals

- ✓ Maintain a strong capital base with modest leverage and ample liquidity
- ✓ Increase margins, free cash flow and earnings consistency
- ✓ Excel at inventory management and customer satisfaction

GROWTH INITIATIVES

Three complementary efforts are well established

TRANSFORMATION 2.0

- Measure performance and align incentives to drive:
  - → Data-driven decisions
  - → Goals that are focused, aligned and stretched
  - → LEAN transformation of all businesses and functions
- Short, rapid improvement Lean events accelerate change
  - → Eliminate waste at root cause
  - → Best practices & standard work
- Leverage Our Strong Culture
  - → Lead with safety & the Golden Rule
  - → Entrepreneurial innovation
  - → Profit sharing incentives

INNOVATION

- New Product Development
  - → Product Design & Engineering
  - → Customer & Market Research
  - → Advanced Technologies
  - → Innovation Strategy
- Experienced Leadership
  - → Executives with experience leading innovation at Procter & Gamble, Emerson Electric, Elmer's Products and Battelle Memorial Institute

ACQUISITIONS

- Market Leading Targets
  - → Increase exposure to attractive end markets
  - → Target industries/sectors we know
  - → Enhanced target evaluation process, due diligence and integration
- Focus On The Core
  - → Consolidate markets
  - → Enhance technology and know-how
  - → Build out product offering
- New Platforms
  - → Enter new lines of business to position the company for growth

TRANSFORMATION 2.0

Less inventory, shorter lead times and higher customer satisfaction

STEEL PROCESSING – AUTOMOTIVE INDUSTRY DYNAMICS

North American light vehicle production forecast

Volume and automobile production

- ✓ Worthington's Steel Processing segment generates over half of its net sales from the automotive sector
- ✓ Exposure to Detroit Three as well as "New Domestics"[1]
- ✓ Increased auto sales and further re-stocking of the automotive supply chain could provide further growth opportunities

Source: IHS Global report, Company filings and WI Auto Production Report.

(1) "New Domestics" denote foreign automotive original equipment manufacturers with domestic production.

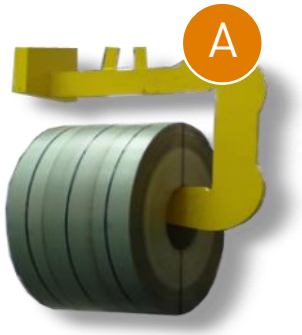

AUTOMOTIVE LIGHTWEIGHTING

Materials:

Ultra high strength steel
Press hardened steel
Aluminum
Coatings and lubricants

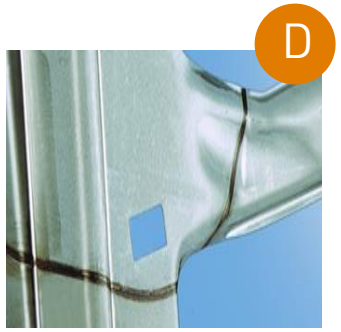

Methods:

Laser welded coils (A)
Laser welded blanks (B)
Hot formed blanks (C)
Curvilinear welded blanks (D)

- Impacting how the supply chains are structured
- Sizable, profitable niches developing
- Proven ability to manage complex programs a differentiator

WAVE

Global leader in suspension ceiling systems

- Strong brand (Armstrong) and distribution
- Worthington's steel buying and processing expertise
- Significant portion of sales to renovation markets
- Recently acquired Axiom® and Serpentina® manufacturing capabilities

Growth Opportunities

- Market growth via Integrated Ceiling Solutions
- Innovation focused on Ceiling Components
- LEAN with a purpose

THE CEILING SOLUTION

Benefits of solution selling

- Saves contractors as much as 30% in labor
- Architects attain design intent & integrate more product
- Differentiates contractors from competition
- Opportunity to double project sales
