Everest Insurance™ Announces Head of E&S Property

October 4, 2016

HAMILTON, Bermuda--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 4, 2016-- Everest Re Group, Ltd. (NYSE:RE) announces Christopher Curtin has joined Everest Insurance as Head of Excess & Surplus (E&S) Property. Chris joins Everest as Vice President and National E&S leader, based in the Everest Insurance Boston office. Chris will be responsible for managing all facets of this business unit within Everest's Property operation, including direct oversight of the Everest underwriting teams dedicated to the E&S market segment.

Chris was most recently with Lexington Insurance Company, a unit of AIG, where he served as the National Branch Property Executive and US-Canada Multinational Property Leader. In this role Chris was responsible for driving strategy and underwriting performance of the Lexington wholesale business for the U.S. region. Prior to joining AIG, Chris worked as a property broker at Integro USA and Aon Risk Services.

In his new role, Chris will report directly to Erik Nikodem, Head of Property at Everest Insurance. Commenting on this addition, Erik said, "We are excited to have Chris join the Everest team. Chris's broad industry and leadership experience, deep relationships, and underwriting expertise will be an asset to our organization, and our trading partners, as we continue to both maintain and build our presence in this important segment. Chris will be joined by additional key strategic hires that together as a team will continue to build on our strategic and dynamic vision for Everest Insurance."
