Everest Insurance® Ireland, dac Announces UK Branch

April 15, 2019

HAMILTON, Bermuda – (BUSINESS WIRE) – April 15, 2019

Everest Insurance (Ireland) Designated Activity Company (EIID), a part of the Everest Insurance® International platform, announced today the planned opening of a branch office in the United Kingdom.

EIID was established in 2017 and is led by CEO Linda Ryan, who manages the strategy and operational development of the company. Linda previously held the title of EIID Chief Financial Officer.

The UK branch is authorized to write general insurance classes including Goods in Transit, Fire and Natural Forces, Damage to Property, General Liability, Credit, Suretyship and Miscellaneous Financial Loss.

“After a successful launch in Dublin, we are looking forward to expanding to the United Kingdom,” said Ryan. “We are confident that our innovative products, flexibility and knowledgeable underwriters will be a great asset to our new United Kingdom clients.”

“This is an important step as Everest continues to expand our international capabilities,” commented Everest Insurance ® International CEO Vincent Vandendael. “The United Kingdom is a strategic choice and a logical location for our next branch. We’re intent to prove ourselves a valuable asset to the UK insurance community.”

The UK branch has received CBI and PRA approval pending confirmation of our Senior Manager approvals by the FCA.
