Chris Stella Appointed Chief Claims Officer of Hamilton Select

2026-05-18

PEMBROKE, Bermuda--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Hamilton Insurance Group, Ltd. (NYSE: HG) ("Hamilton" or the "Company") today announced the appointment of Christopher ("Chris") R. Stella as Chief Claims Officer of Hamilton Select, its primary carrier for domestically placed US excess and surplus ("E&S") business, effective May 18, 2026.

Chris Stella Appointed Chief Claims Officer of Hamilton Select

In his new role, Stella will report to Anita Kuchma, Chief Executive Officer of Hamilton Select and will be based remotely in the United States. He will lead Hamilton Select's claims organization and support the platform's continued growth and commitment to exceptional client service, following its recent upgrade to an "A" rating by AM Best.

"Chris is a highly respected claims leader with deep technical expertise and a proven ability to build and lead high-performing teams," said Kuchma. "His extensive industry experience and strong client-focused approach make him an outstanding addition to our leadership team as we continue to strengthen our platform and capabilities."

Stella brings over 20 years of property and casualty claims experience to Hamilton Select. He spent over 18 years with Chubb, serving in a series of claims leadership positions of increasing responsibility. Most recently, he served as Head of Property and Casualty Claims for Westchester, Chubb's E&S division. Earlier in his career, Stella held environmental claims and compliance leadership roles with several companies including AIG. Stella is admitted to the New York and New Jersey State Bars.
