2025-12-15

PEMBROKE, Bermuda--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Hamilton Insurance Group, Ltd. (NYSE: HG) ("Hamilton" or the "Company") announced today the appointment of Dwayne Hunt as Senior Vice President, Head of Property Insurance at Hamilton Re, the Company's Bermuda-based insurance and reinsurance underwriting platform, effective immediately. He succeeds Gavin Davis who will be leaving the organisation.

Dwayne Hunt, SVP, Head of Property Insurance at Hamilton Re

Hunt brings 30 years of insurance industry experience to his new role leading Hamilton Re's property insurance business and team. He joined Hamilton five years ago from Neon where he was Senior Vice President, Property Insurance. Prior to that, he held senior underwriting roles in property insurance at ACE (now Chubb) and Arch. He began his insurance career as a broker with Johnson and Higgins before joining XL (now AXA XL) where he got his start in underwriting.

Commenting on the announcement, Adrian Daws, Chief Executive Officer, Hamilton Re said, "This is a well-deserved and well-earned appointment. Dwayne has consistently delivered profitable underwriting results, built strong broker relationships and is highly regarded by his colleagues.

"His promotion reflects our nimble structure and collaborative culture, which enable us to draw on internal succession and drive sustained growth. We are fortunate to have such notable industry expertise leading our talented team in this important line of business.

"Gavin joined Hamilton ten years ago and played a pivotal role in diversifying Hamilton Re's portfolio to include the property direct and facultative insurance practice, while also building a strong team. We are grateful for his contributions and wish him every success in his next chapter.”
