London-based Chin joined Hamilton earlier this month and reports to Group Chief Risk Officer Alex

Baker.

In welcoming Chin, Baker said, "I am delighted Wilfred has joined the Hamilton team. His appointment underscores our commitment to upholding Hamilton's high-quality risk and actuarial integrity and supporting the execution of its strategy to contribute to our continued success. Chin's proven track record of leading teams, his analytical capabilities in pricing and reserving and his in-depth knowledge of Lloyd's will enhance how we serve our clients."

Chin joins from Tokio Marine Kiln (TMK) where he served in a range of roles for nearly 15 years, most recently as Group Head of Reserving and Chief Actuary of their non-Lloyd's platform, demonstrating his versatility and proficiency in the field. Prior to TMK, he started his career at Deloitte. Chin is a Fellow of the Institute and Faculty of Actuaries.
